A Dedication

In every endeavor and achievement, certain individuals can always be found to be insuring the success of an objective. Yet, seldom are they awarded the highly due credit of which they are deserving.

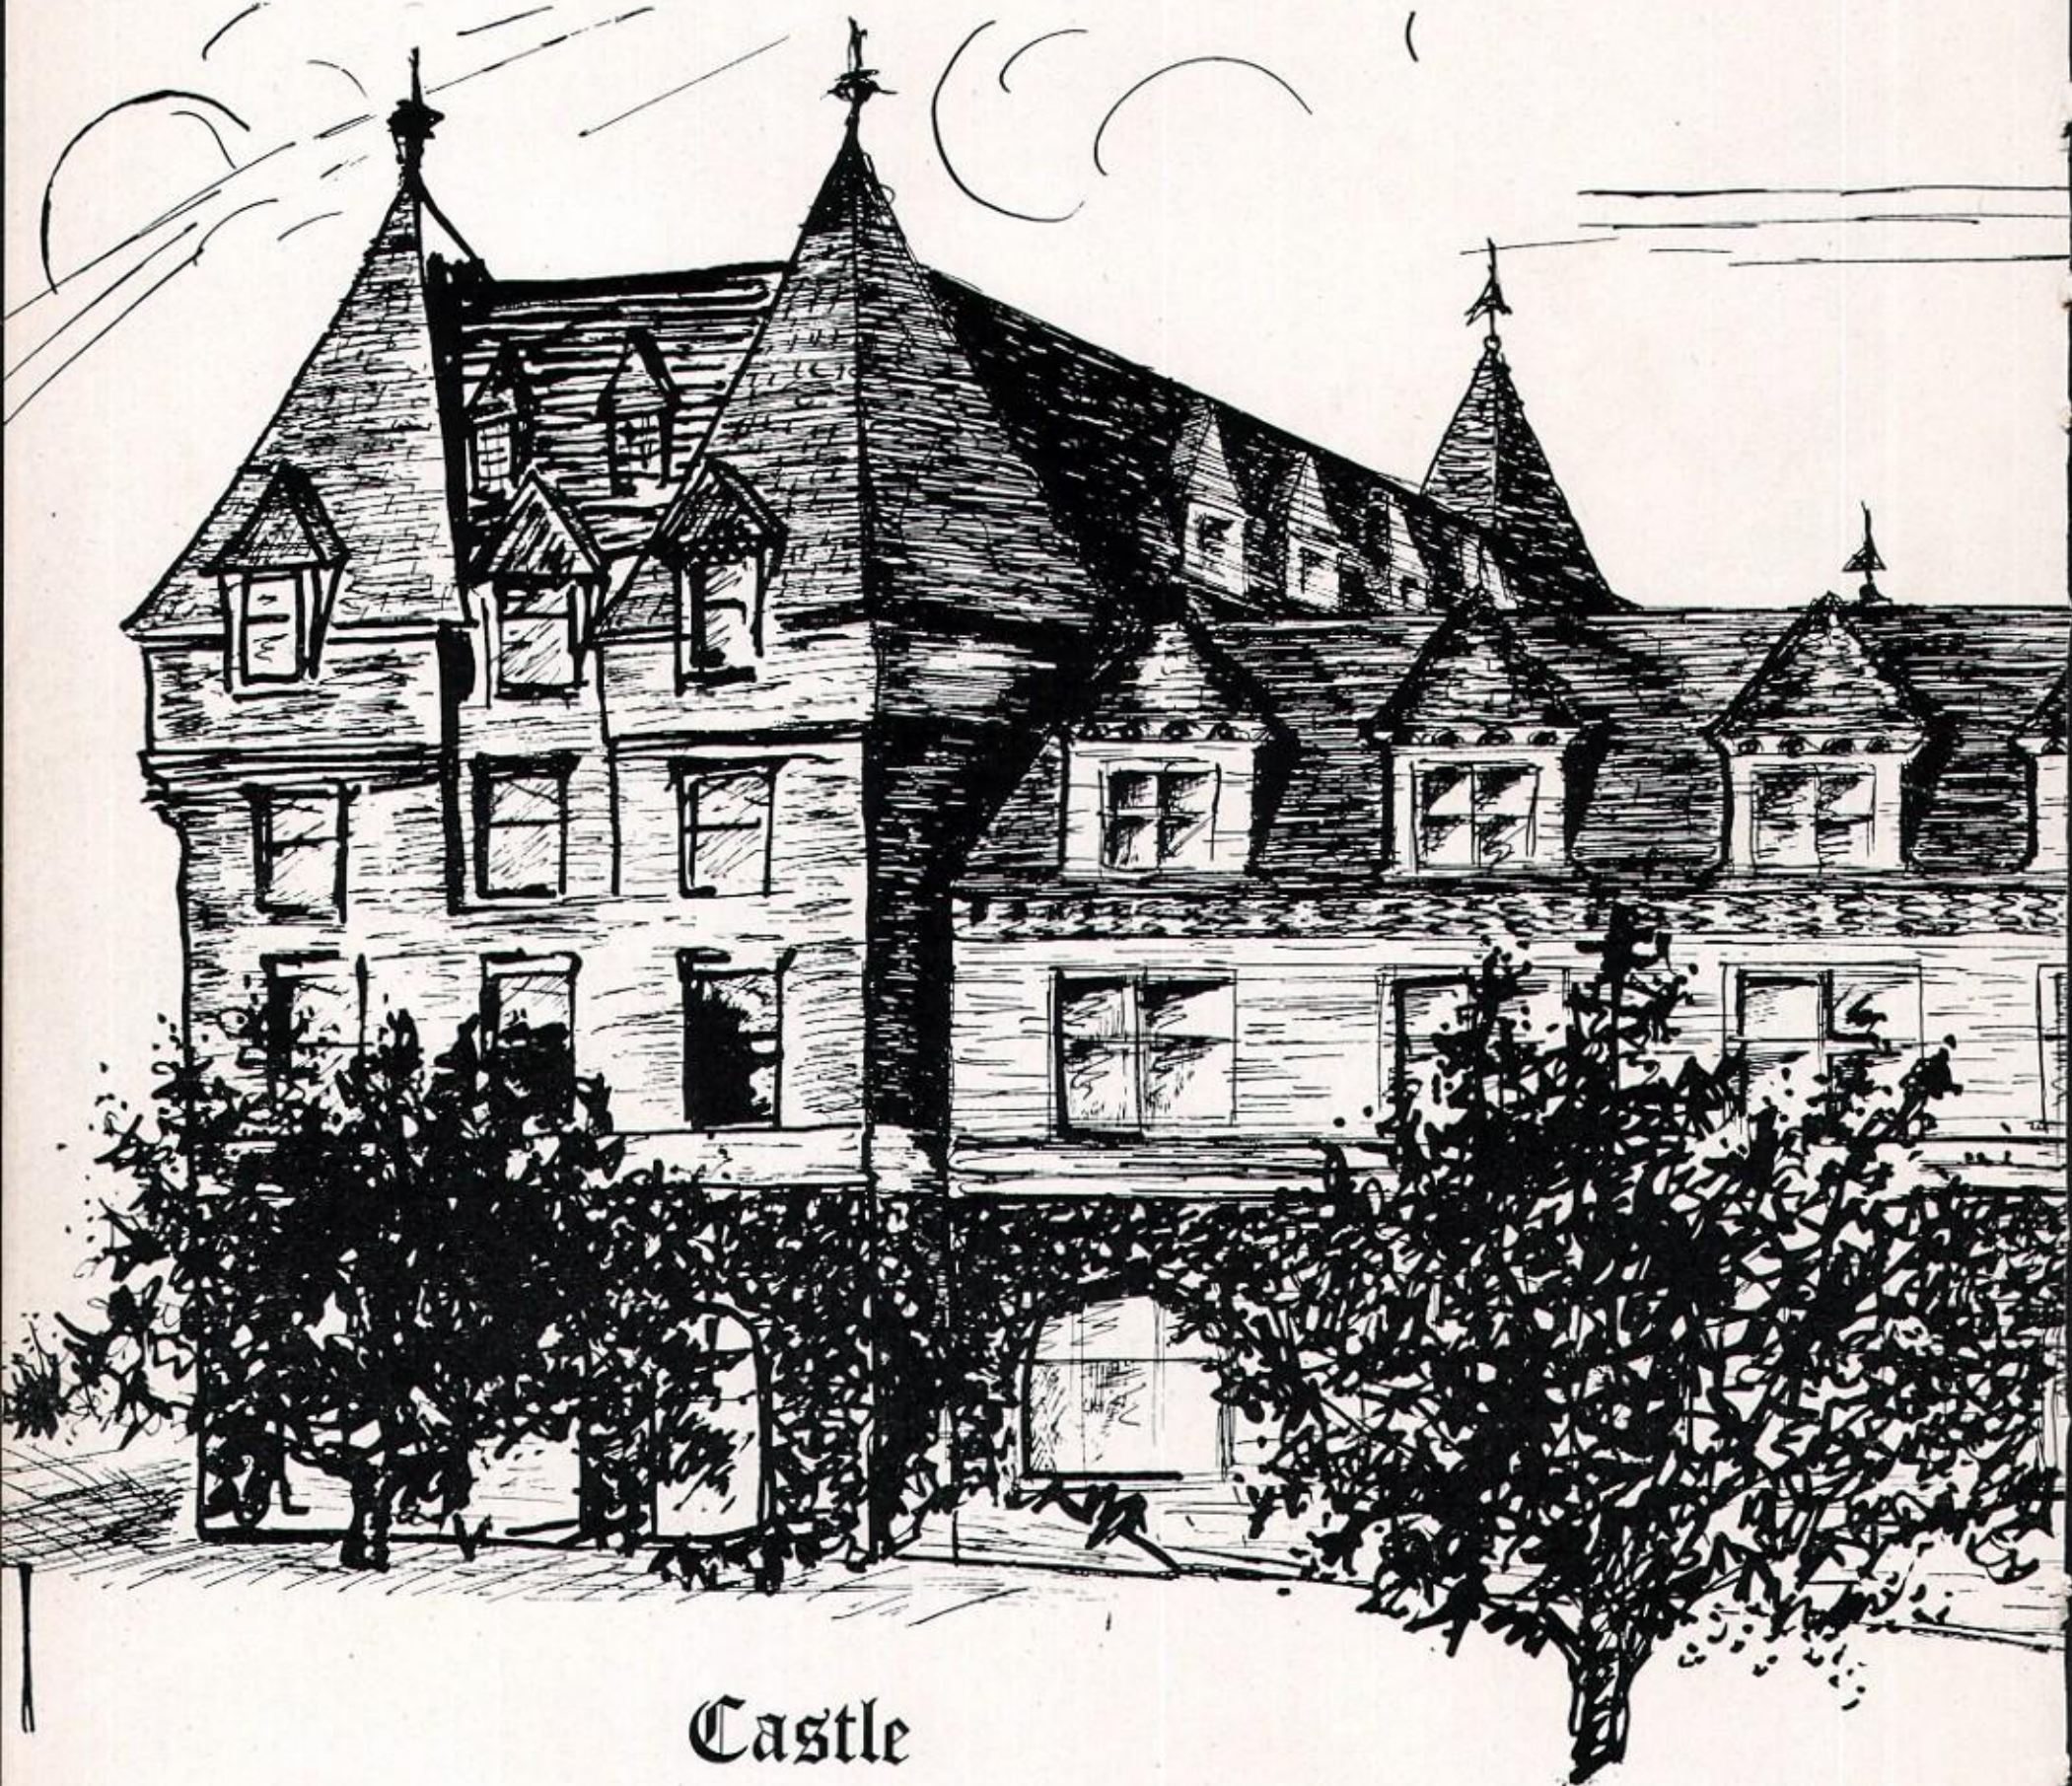

Twenty-five years ago the monthly Tahoma, which consisted mostly of students' literary compositions, was transformed into an annual that has highlighted and climaxed each school year.

It is to two faculty members greatly responsible for these 25 yearbooks that this Silver Anniversary Tahoma is dedicated — its present adviser, Mr. Giltner and its founder, Mr. Hoffman.

Turning Back

Castle

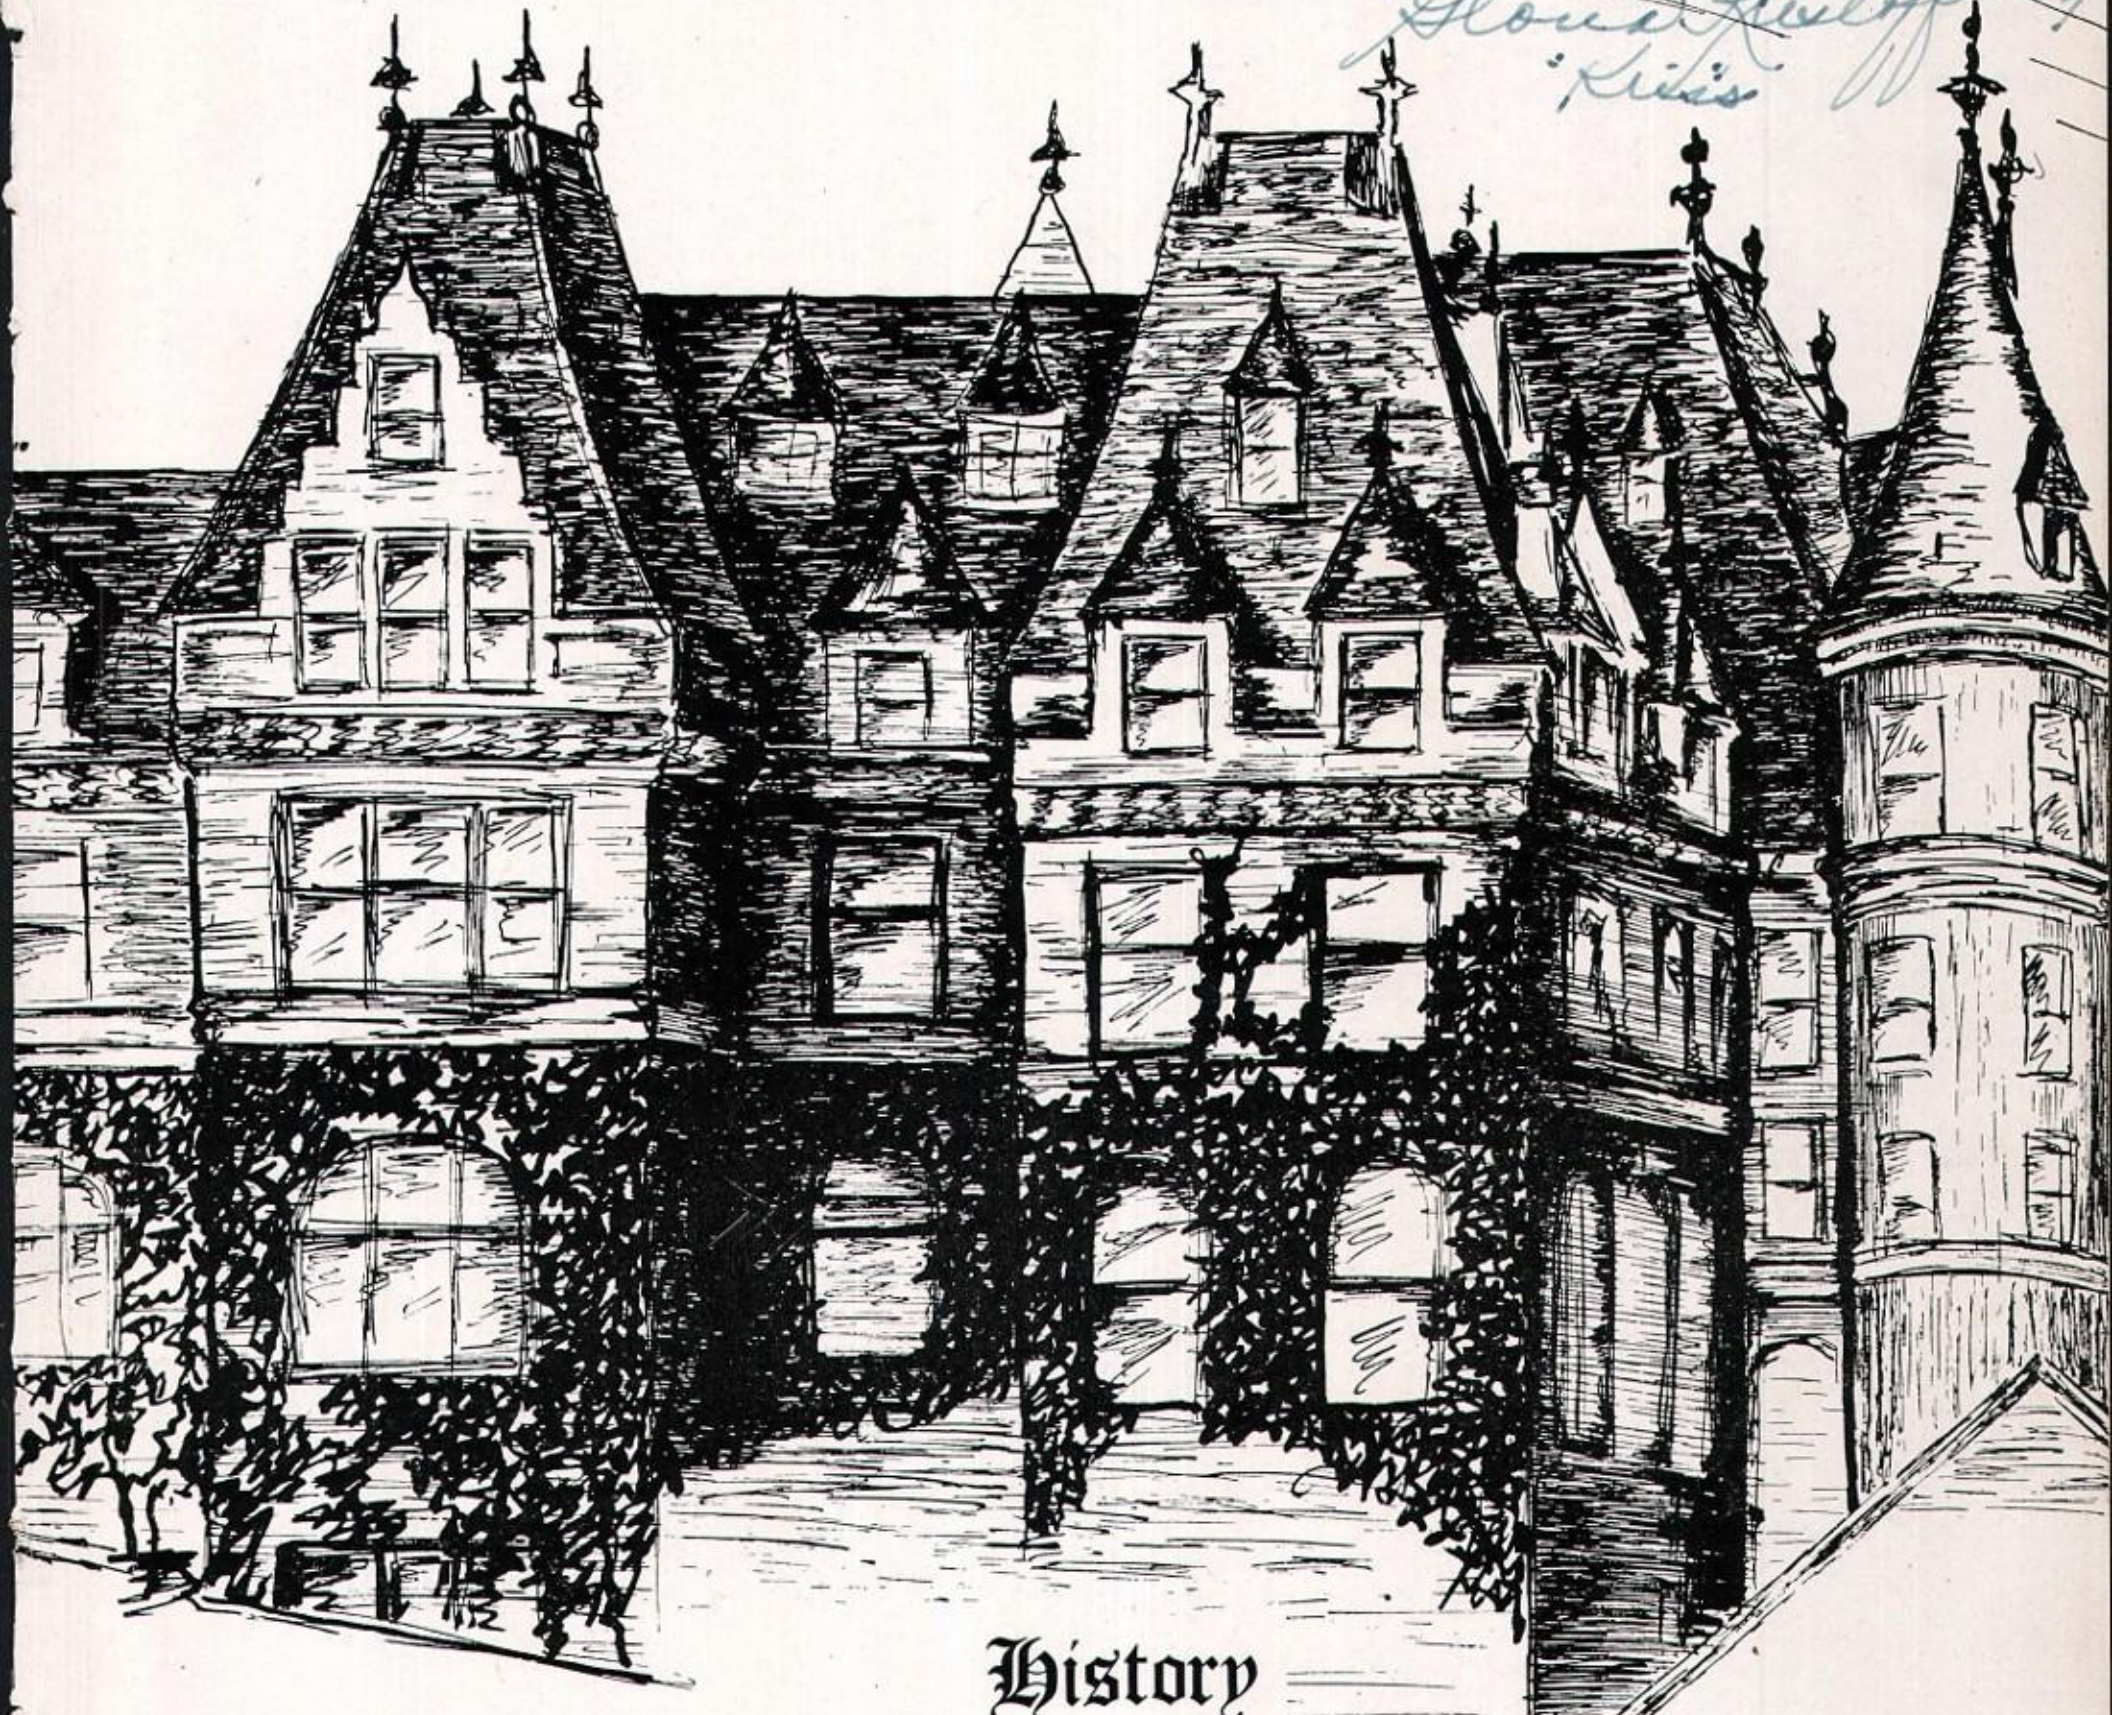

Every sophomore, junior and senior knows that Stadium, the well-loved Brown Castle, is one of the most picturesque schools in the country. For years we have all heard tales of its origin, but few really know the true history of the ivy-covered Bastille.

Back in 1891 Tacoma's city fathers foresaw this up and coming community as a tourist haven and commercial terminal necessitating an additional hotel. This location proved to be ideal in that it was to have been in the heart of the growing metropolis and was endowed with its superlative view of Commencement Bay. But unfortunately, hard times came along and the project, which was under roof, was abandoned with the windows boarded up.

Dear Margaret -
 Good thing you never checked upon me when I was late and you were checking attendance in first period study hall!
 Thanks! - Here's
 wishing lots of luck & success to a very sweet girl!

The Hands

Sincerely
 Howard Kistoffler

History

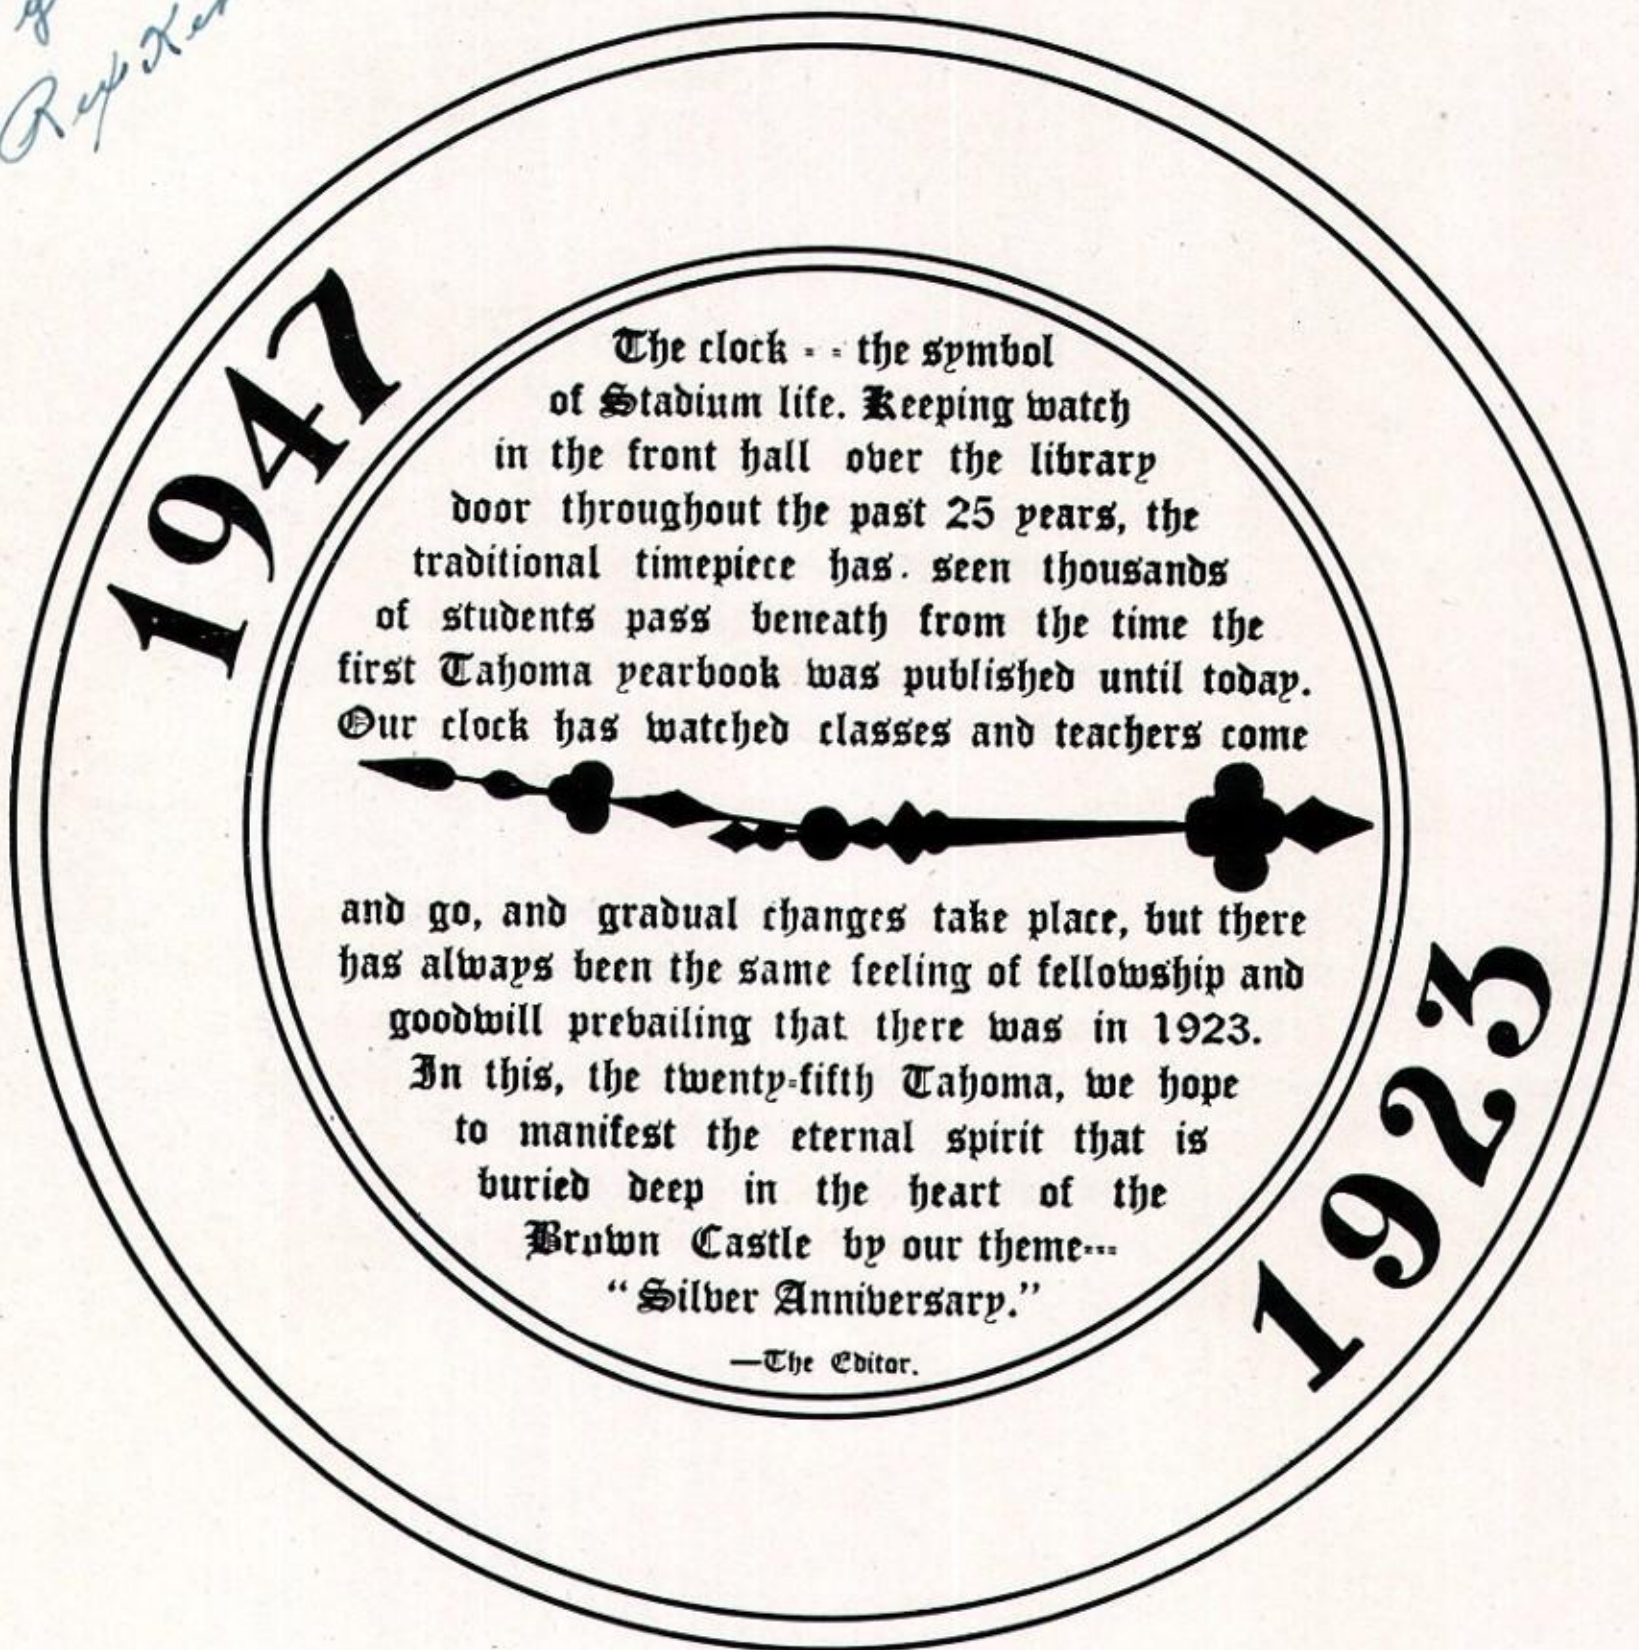

So the structure remained until the autumn of 1898 when a fire mysteriously broke out that was seen even in Olympia and Seattle, leaving ruins which were to stand for six years.

By that time, there was no longer the need for such a tourist hotel so far removed from the city center, but rather the people were crying for another high school. Under the architectural direction of Frederick Heath, the idle ruins were transformed into a castle-like structure, ready for classes in 1906. Taking advantage of what nature had already accomplished, Old Woman's Gulch was the setting for the bowl, being paid for by public subscription. In 1907 the first class was graduated, this year 1947 marking the fortieth anniversary of our school — Stadium.

Anniversary Teachers

Stadium has many traditions which have been revered and treasured by all students, both past and present. Besides the pleasant memories of spring days in the court, assemblies and dances, every graduate, when thinking back on his years at Stadium, remembers his teachers. Whether he remembers them as outstanding educators in their fields or as good friends of their students makes no difference. The fact remains that our teachers are the ones who have influenced us most during our high school years.

This twenty-fifth anniversary edition of the Tahoma is just another milestone in the lives of many of the teachers here today. The men and women who have devoted 25 or more years to the teaching profession at Stadium are held in the highest esteem. Theirs is the kind of service that so often goes unsung in a community but which deserves the highest of praise.

Two men who contributed greatly to the excellent reputation Stadium has as a school were its previous principals, Mr. Hunt and Mr. Perkins. More than just fine men, they were fine teachers who are still remembered by many former pupils.

There are 19 men and women at Stadium this year who were here when the first annual was issued. They have helped us all immeasurably and none of us will ever forget their patience and friendly cooperation.

They are Mr. H. Carr, Miss Cooper, Mr. Clark, Mr. Cousin, Miss A. Fraser, Mr. Giltner, Miss Grime, Miss Hammond, Mr. Hilton, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Kennard, Mr. Johnson, Miss Miller, Mrs. Simmons, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Stratton, Mrs. VanArsdale and Mr. Westgate.

To these teachers goes the tribute of the returning students who fondly inquire about their former instructors. As counselors and as friends, they will never be forgotten by the men and women whom they have taught. It is to these teachers that we say, "Thank you. You have always stood us in good stead, and now, after we have left, you will remember not the times we hadn't our lessons prepared or the times we skipped, but look to the future when we, like our parents before us, will have attained the heights for which you have hoped and worked with us."

Senior Class

Talent and ability in all phases of school life marked the Class of 1947 as it finished its third year at the Brown Castle. Debate, athletics, journalism and music—all found representation by the members of the class.

Caps and gowns to be worn at graduation instead of suits and formals were chosen for the fourth consecutive year. This was decided in January by a vote of the students in the class.

Class officers during its final year at Stadium were Ron Smith, president; Skip Norton, vice president; Peggy Gagliardi, secretary; Pat Chapman, treasurer; Janine Eklund, girls' representative, and Bill Reid, boys' representative.

As juniors, the class of '47 chose Bruce Andreassen as president; Garry Hersey, vice president; Nancy Williams, secretary; Joanne Myers, treasurer; Anne McCrea, girls' representative, and Ed Notley, boys' representative.

PEGGY GAGLIARDI
Secretary

PAT CHAPMAN
Treasurer

JANINE EKLUND
Girls' Representative

BILL REID
Boys' Representative

During its first year at Stadium, class officers were Ken Addis, president; Tom Rigney, vice president; Ron Smith, secretary; Jim Malstrom, treasurer; Evie Gagliardi, girls' representative, and Wells Anderson, boys' representative.

President of Debate Club for two years, Bill Kidd won honors in the debate tournaments held at the College of Puget Sound during both his junior and senior years, as well as taking first prize in an oratorical contest.

In the field of journalism, the most active Stadion was Shirley Willis, who in addition to serving as editor of The Tahoma, was editor of The World for two semesters and student adviser this spring.

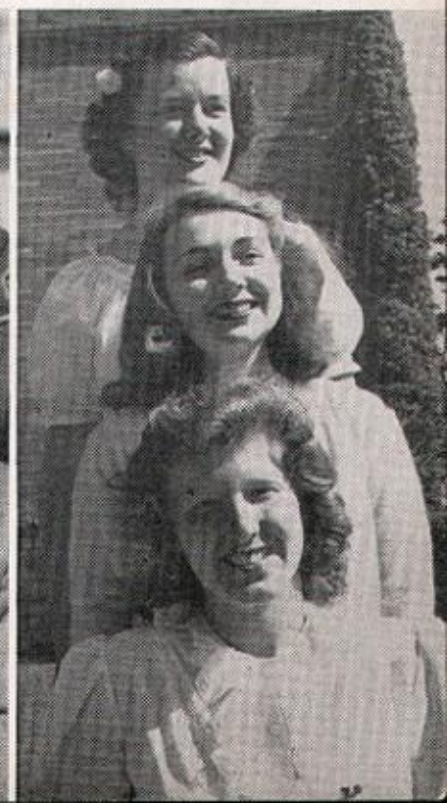

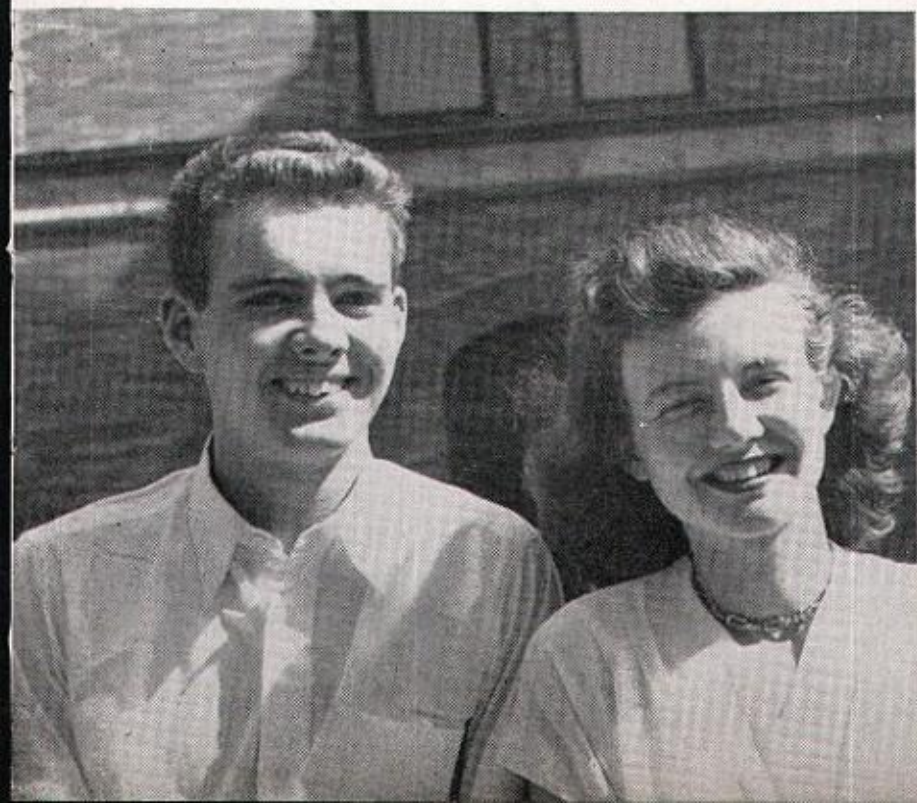

As a whole, the boys of the class participated in all sports, and contributed greatly to the record made by the school in Cross-State and City competition.

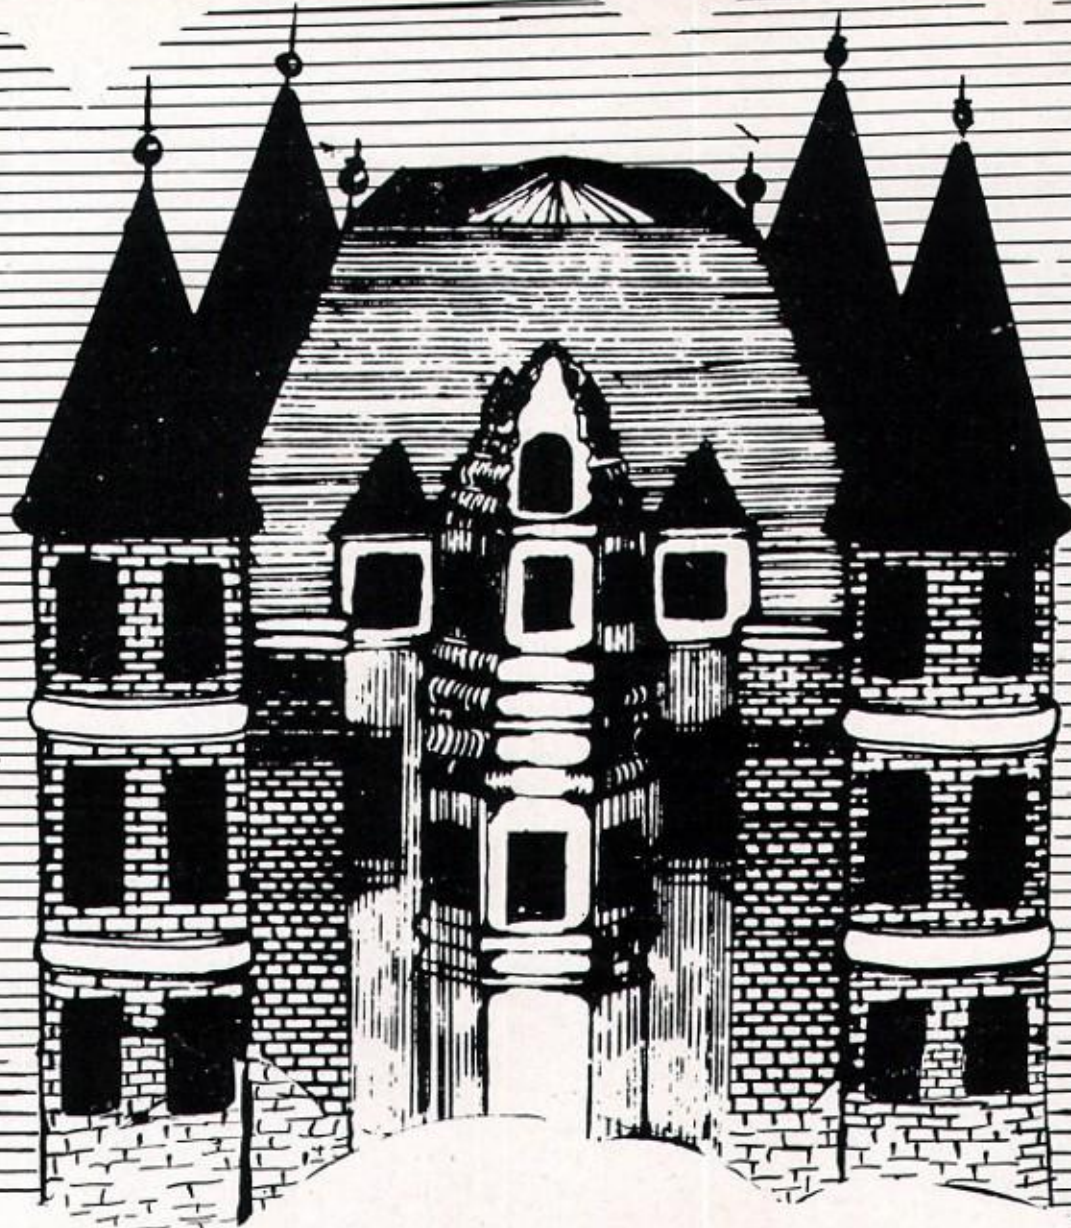

Clara Bowe held the distinction of having the lead in the operas given in 1946 and 1947, "The Vagabond King" and "Katinka." Also in the operas for three years were Rosalie Hoar, Roald Reitan and Jim Ernst, who rose with successive performances from the special chorus to more important roles.

Girls' Club officers were chosen mainly from members of the Senior Class, with president, Colleen Pickert; vice president, Clara Bowe, and treasurer, Rosalie Hoar, all active in the club. Department chairmen were Joan Thrasher, social; Joyce Welch, service; Sue Pringle, welfare; Alice Palmer, Triple S; Avis Face, Stadiana.

Boys' Club, which was reorganized this year after an unsuccessful attempt last year, was active with Ralph Wehmhoff as president, Bob La Hatt, vice president; Wells Anderson, secretary, and Chuck Engell, treasurer.

ELEANOR MELLISH
Vice President

GRACE FULLAGER
Secretary

Laying the foundation for leadership of the Castle next year, the Junior Class vigorously assumed many responsibilities in Stadium activities. Leading the class was the first girl to be elected president, Barbara Stowe. Other cabinet members were: Eleanor Mellish, vice president; Grace Fullager, secretary; Gen Thompson, treasurer, and Lorraine Bottiger and Ted Cormier, representatives to Student Council.

Glittering swords, mysterious atmosphere and swishing formals set the scene for one of the most important social events of the year, the junior prom, held early in December. "Arabian Dream" was the theme chosen by Co-Chairmen Garry Bailey and Patty Doe.

Many honors were captured by members of the class of '48. They were represented in Girls' Council by Margaret Hansen, secretary; Lorraine Bottiger, fellowship department chairman; Patty Doe, service department head, and Carol Marcy, Marilyn McCormack and Joan Hokanson, junior representatives.

Hazel Ann Manning proved her pep as yell duchess for a second term.

Triple S initiated the following juniors: Ann Joyce Bachrach, Carol Cheim, Joanne Cinelli, Helen Fincham, Grace Fullager, Margaret Hansen, Evelyn Harting, Joan Hokanson, Eleanor Keyser, Mona Kleiner, Marilyn McCormack, Eleanor Mellish, JoAnne Neff, Janice Peterson, Arlene Rose, Helene Shugard, Doris Soder, Barb Stowe, Corinne Sule, Barbara Swanson and Joan Wilson.

In the athletic field Sam Baker and Dick Boyle were prominent, having been chosen as next year's football co-captains. Special recognition in other sports went to Nick Mosich, Bob Paige and Dick Brynestad.

The junior cabinet chose Claire McNeill and Arlene Rose as next year's editor and business manager of The Tahoma.

Those distinguishing themselves musically were Sid Bowe and Laurine Schore, having prominent parts in the opera; Marjie Joy Miller, dancing chorus instructor, and Joy Lundgren, dancing chorus accompanist and harp soloist.

The last social event of the year was the Farewell to Seniors dance, sponsored by the juniors in honor of the graduating class.

Having just completed their first year in the Brown Castle, many sophomores have proven themselves worthy of continuing on as leaders in the coming two years.

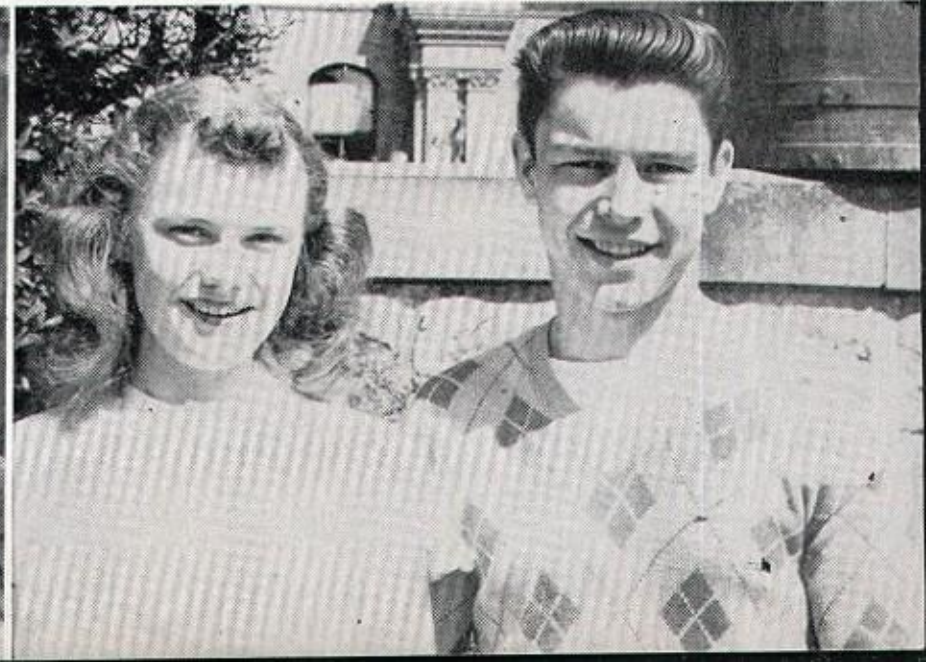

With Bob Hoskins as president of the group and a fine cabinet consisting of Jack Day, vice president; Barbara Michaelson, secretary; John DeWeese, boys' representative, the class has had a busy and prosperous year.

Many of the boys showed outstanding skill in the field of sports. A few of them were Jim Wolfe, Wendall Kibbe, Hank Owens, Bob Hoskins, John DuPriest, John DeWeese, Carl Harrison and Carl Peterson.

Reigning over the sophomore May dance were Queen Dolores Dessen and her attendants — Jane Dockeray and Dorothy Jorgenson. Maureen Dessen and Don Busselle headed the traditional affair as co-chairmen.

Honors - Activities

Commencement

Following in the trend of recent years, the three top honor students of the Class of '47 were girls. Rosalie Hoar, headed the class with a record of all A's and one B, while Harriet Herrmann won second place honors and Shirley Willis, third.

Not only high honor students, these girls also topped a long list of activities. Particularly active in music and dramatics, Rosalie was president of the Girls' Glee Club, in the opera three years, a member of Thespian Cabinet, Triple S and treasurer of Girls' Club.

Harriet was kept busy by being vice president of Triple S, president of the girls' student leaders, a member of Student Council and Stadiana cabinet. Tahoma editor and editor of The World for two semesters, Shirley was also president of Quill and Scroll, secretary of Speakers' Bureau and a member of Triple S, Student Council and the band.

Instead of having the valedictorian speak as was customary, Rosalie was recognized with a vocal solo. It was decided by the senior honor roll that the four student speakers would be Bill Bethke, Fritzie Herrmann, Shirley Willis, and Ron Smith, who would represent the class as its president. A well-balanced program of music and presentation of awards was climaxed with a recessional as last year.

With approximately 100 more graduates than in 1946, the number on the senior honor roll dropped from 50 to 40. Twenty-eight girls and 12 boys attained this honor. Three boys were on the outside honor roll by virtue of not having had their three years of high school at Stadium.

Placing highest on senior honor roll were Fritzie Herrmann, salutatorian, Rosalie Hoar, valedictorian, and Shirley Willis, third place.

DWAYNE WESTLIN CLARE DUERFELDT ED HANSEN CLARICE LOREN JERRY MILLER

1946 Award Winners

In recognition of their high scholastic standards and outstanding achievements during the year, 18 students of the graduating class of 1946 were honored with awards and scholarships at commencement.

The Richard Graff Memorial Award, which was presented to Stadium in 1919 by the late Dr. and Mrs. Marc W. Graff in honor of their son who died while a senior here, is given to the boy who attains the highest ideals of sportsmanship and scholastic achievement. Dwayne Westlin, the twenty-eighth boy to have his name engraved on the cup, was prominent in school affairs, serving as captain of 1946 varsity basketball squad, president of senior Hi-Y, captain of 1946 varsity track and a member of Big S and Boys' Club Council.

For the first time last year, the Janet Hufford Memorial Award was presented to the senior girl considered the best representative of friendliness, scholarship and cooperation in school activities. This gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hufford was awarded as a tribute to their daughter who was a beloved and admired Stadium student before her death in 1945. Clare Duerfeldt, the recipient of this new honor, was president of Triple S, and a member of Student Council, Stadiana and Girls' Council.

Chosen for his outstanding work in the journalistic field, Edward Hansen was given the honor of being the first Stadium to receive the new Roberta and Marilyn Powell journalism award. Ed was editor of The World, a member of Quill and Scroll and student adviser of The World.

The Phil and Grace Garland music award to encourage music leadership is given each year to the senior who has made the most outstanding contribution toward Stadium's musical life. Clarice Loren was given this award because of her musical ability and qualities of leadership, citizenship, scholarship and capability. Clarice was a member of the pep band, orchestra, band and opera dancing chorus.

Chosen the most promising student in the field of scientific research, Rollin Bach received the Bausch and Lomb medal.

Outstanding qualities of cooperation and leadership earned for Jean McCrea the Good Citizenship award given by the Mary Ball chapter of the D. A. R.

The Harvard College tuition scholarship for $600 went to Jerome Miller. The Northwest Kiwanis Club tuition scholarship for study in the field of social science at the College of Puget Sound was given to Doris Goody.

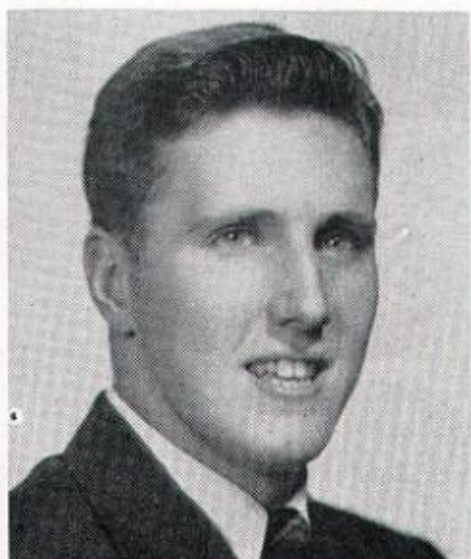

Marilyn Wold was awarded the Ada L. McCleary scholarship established by the Mary Ball chapter of the D. A. R.

The two P. T. A. scholarships, awarded for personal merit and accomplishment, and worth $50 each, were given to Beverly Leach and Walter Hansen.

Joan Fries, in competition with 27,000 other students, won a certificate of merit in the scholarship contest sponsored by Pepsi Cola.

Mills College of California gave two scholarships awarded on a competitive basis. To Jean Lee went the Mills Trustee scholarship worth $2,000, while Marienne Schweinler, a graduate of 1945, received the other, worth $400.

Winner of the Reed College Tuition scholarship for $280 was Mary Savage. The College of Puget Sound tuition scholarship went to James Gimlett, while the Washington State College scholarship, which is awarded on the basis of scholastic record, was given to Maudie Boyle.

GARRY HERSEY
President

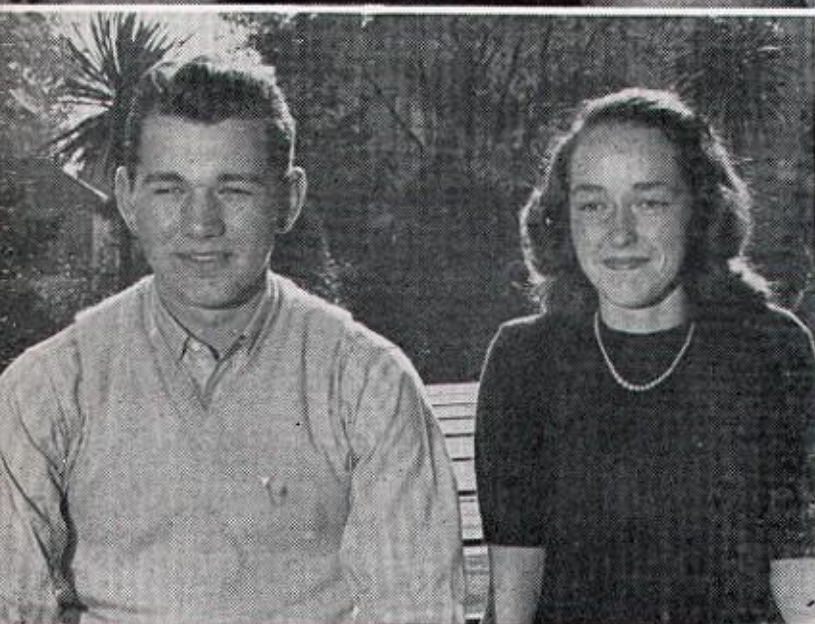

Student Council

Led through a difficult post war year by Garry Hersey, president, Student Council headed a long list of activities for the year. Other officers were: Bud Waiss, vice president; Anne McCrea, secretary, and Jean Johnson, treasurer.

Football Night Co-Chairmen Don Gilsdorf and Gerry Fries chose as its theme "Castle Capades." With Ken Addis as master of ceremonies, it was presented in the form of a large stage production. Capturing the annual awards were Clara Bowe for her singing, Garry Hersey for his speech, and Stadiana for the best skit.

At a special meeting Nov. 5 the council met with officers of the Bremerton High School student body and Boys' and Girls' Clubs.

To encourage better behavior at football games, a group of students from Lincoln and Stadium went to junior high schools in the city to plead the cause of better sportsmanship among the spectators. A committee consisting of Bruce Andreasen, Garry Hersey, Anne McCrea, Gloria Nelson, Colleen Pickert and Ron Smith was appointed by the council to propose a plan to Lincoln. An assembly was organized to include talent from both schools, with yell leaders and football team captains present, as well as student body officers. Those who participated in the assembly were Ken Addis,

The annual Exchange Assembly with Lincoln was held Jan. 24, with Janine Eklund and Skip Norton as co-chairmen. Highlights were the minstrel show and the barber shop quartet, while the dancing chorus came up to its usual high standard.

With so much business to attend to, the council met every Tuesday. During the year it voted to ban corsages at most school dances. Bud Waiss was in charge of the Student Council booth for the band uniform benefit dance. At the end of the year a picnic was held at Bert Fisher's beach place, with Joanne Knapp and Bert Fisher in charge.

CLARA BOWE
Vice President

MARGARET HANSEN
Secretary

ROSALIE HOAR
Treasurer

With the last rap of President Colleen Pickert's gavel marking the end of another school term, Girls' Club completed an eventful and successful year. Assisting Colleen were Clara Bowe, vice president; Margaret Hansen, secretary, and Rosalie Hoar, treasurer. Miss McCulloch was head adviser.

Teas for teachers, which were held every Wednesday after school with each of the four departments sponsoring one tea during the month, was a new idea inaugurated this year. A talent assembly was given at the beginning of the spring semester to welcome girls in the place of the mixer held in the fall. Both types of entertainment met with great approval.

"Treasure Island" proved to be one of the most enjoyable tolo dances of the year with everyone costumed in pirates' attire, fitting in with the decorations of treasure chests, skulls, caves and a ship. Virginia Gundstrom and Helen Gladstone were co-chairmen of the affair given by social department. Joan Thrasher, social head, supervised the mixer and talent assembly, the Girls' Club - Triple S tea and was co-chairman of the Girls'-Boys' Club sophisticated spring formal, "Castlecobana."

Lavish Christmas decorations bedecked the halls of Stadium during the yuletide season under the direction of Sue Pringle, welfare department chairman. Co-chairmen of the project were Shirley Willis and Judy Shore. Other duties of this department were serving for P.-T. A. every month, organizing "Big Sisters" and polishing trophies.

Sending Christmas stockings and Easter baskets to children of the Community House and Day Nursery was part of the work of service department headed by Joyce Welch during the fall semester and Patty Doe in the spring.

The annual Memorial Day service was planned by the fellowship department with Lorraine Bottiger as chairman and department head. Encouraging the wearing of white blouses on Wednesdays and sending holiday greetings to teachers were projects of this department.

BOB LA HATT
Vice President

RALPH WEHMHOFF
President

Boys' Club was reorganized this fall as an active club in which all Stadium boys participate. Under the capable direction of Ralph Wehmhoff, the service organization carried on various activities and projects directed at school betterment.

Larry Martin, social commissioner, was in charge of social events during the year, the most spectacular of which was the spring formal, "Castlecobana." This dance was given jointly with Girls' Club in early March. The gym was decorated for this successful affair to give the atmosphere of a New York nightclub, with replicas of the New York skyline around the walls in addition to pink clouds and stars hanging from the ceiling. Joan Thrasher, social chairman of Girls' Club, was co-chairman with Larry.

Athletics commissioner, Bruce Andreasen, was responsible for promoting more interest among boys in both intramural and interscholastic sports. He had charge of two assemblies during the year at which coaches for the sports of the season were introduced and letters awarded to athletes.

The duty of the morale commissioner, Ron Smith, was to develop more spirit by backing Pep Club. The program for cleaning up the lunchroom was the project of the welfare commissioner, Doug Corns.

Ed Notley, public relations commissioner, was responsible for handling any business between Boys' Club and the public. The service commission, headed by Don Gilsdorf, organized committees for carrying out the various activities of the club. The club's activities were presented to the school by means of bulletins and The World.

Triple S

Living up to its motto, Stadium's Supporting Spirit, Triple S completed another successful year. The blue and gold pins were presented to new members at fall and spring initiations, raising the club's membership to 50. The honorary society carried through many traditional activities, such as being co-sponsor of Howdy Week, making pompons for the Thanksgiving Day game, presenting holly sprigs to the teachers a week before Christmas, putting on a tolo and holding an annual spring tea with Girls' Club.

Officers for the year were: Alice Palmer, president; Harriet Herrmann, vice president; Joan Thrasher, secretary, and Nancy Riehl, treasurer. Miss J. Fraser continued as adviser.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y's goal, "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," was attained more than ever this year.

Hi-Y helped with Howdy Week both semesters and climaxed each with a dance. The club printed a small book, Tiger's Tale, to explain the activities and standards of Stadium. As in the past, the boys ushered at the Senior Class play and the opera, and, as a service to the school, purchased mirrors for the boys' locker room. The Hi-Y basketball team won the "Y" league and also the Y.M.C.A. Northwest championship. Members of the club worked on the "Y's" summer camp to make it better for house parties.

Fall officers were: Bob La Hatt, president; Wells Anderson, vice president; Skip Norton, secretary; Garry Hersey, treasurer; Bert Fisher, chaplain, and Don Gilsdorf, sergeant at arms. Spring officers were: Bill Reid, president; Ron Smith, vice president; Jim Fowler, secretary; Garry Hersey, treasurer; Bud Weiss, chaplain, and Ed Notley, sergeant at arms. Mr. Streeter and Mr. F. Jones were the advisers for the club.

Torch-Y

To create and maintain throughout our school life a feeling of mutual good fellowship is the purpose of Torch-Y.

Activities for the year included a number of dances which were held at the first of the school year after football and basketball games, a hayride, cruise and house party. Torch-Y entered a team in the teen-age league and made such plans for civic projects as a work group to give its efforts to the development of the Y.M.C.A.'s summer camp.

Fall officers were: Ron Tuttle, president; Tom Rigney, vice president; Garry Bailey, secretary; Ted Rose, treasurer; Stiles Wegener, chaplain, and Royce Ward, sergeant at arms.

Spring officers were: Garry Bailey, president; Bob Hoskins, vice president; Chuck Candoo, secretary; Ted Cormier, treasurer; Frank Willoughby, chaplain, and Royce Ward, sergeant at arms.

Bogey-Y

Bogey-Y, a newly-formed organization affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., participated in many activities, including a house party, dance and skit in Football Night.

The "Bogey's" were under the direction of Dwight Johnson, president; Herman Beyer, vice president; Bill Marr, secretary; Jim McCormack, treasurer; Don Semmern, chaplain, and Bob O'Larey, sergeant at arms.

Stadiana

For the best skit at Football Night, Stadiana walked away with the prize of a bronze plaque.

Girls who have earned their first-year athletic awards are members of Stadiana and are required to attend meetings to earn further athletic awards.

Harriet Herrmann was chairman and Nancy Williams, toastmistress at the annual banquet held at Crawfords March 13.

Officers were: President, Avis Face; vice president, Pat Heinrick; secretary, Joan Grafton; treasurer, Maxine Shaw; sergeant at arms, Harriet Herrmann. Miss Bernard was adviser.

P.T.A. Representatives

Assisting the Parent-Teacher Association in the annual membership drive and collecting money for the infantile paralysis fund were the main projects of the Junior P.T.A. Council this year.

In February the Council took charge of the entertainment for the monthly adult meeting.

Officers for the year were: Marjorie Ludwig, president; Patti Boyle, secretary-treasurer; Janis Peterson, program chairman.

Red Cross Representatives

For cheer at Christmas time, candy was wrapped and sent to the soldiers at Fort Lewis by the Junior Red Cross representatives. Filling gift boxes for orphans overseas was another project of the representatives during the fall semester.

A perfect goal was attained by the school in the annual membership drive sponsored by the representatives.

Carrying on their duties for the year were: Mary Louise Graiff, president; Nancy Riehl, vice president; Joan Wilson, secretary; Sally Waller, treasurer. The adviser was Mrs. Hemenway.

Activity Managers

Students who purchased activity tickets this year took advantage of an opportunity offered them to save their money and support school functions at the same time. By buying stamps every Thursday in roll rooms, students were admitted to home football games free, basketball games and Football Night, school productions and The World, as well as receiving credit on the payment of the The Tahoma.

With Mr. Giltner and Mrs. DuBois as advisers, the activity managers sold stamps every week and helped with the distribution of Tahomas this spring.

Bond Managers

Continuing the sale of bonds and stamps even though the war is over has been the job of managers from each roll room who sold the savings stamps on Thursday mornings. Although the impetus for buying stamps has been taken away, as far as many students are concerned, large sales were recorded for the year.

The behind-the-scenes work necessary for the smooth running of the program has been done by Mrs. Du Bois, activity clerk, and Mr. Smith, adviser.

FALL BOND MANAGERS

Attendance Workers

"A woman's work is never done" is a fitting quotation for the workers in the attendance office. All day long Mrs. Laursen and her helpers are busy keeping the files straight in 104. Their duties include taking excuses, collecting slips first and sixth periods, cutting and preparing stencils, marking and counting tardies, filing the absentees' cards, delivering messages and working on report cards every ten weeks.

Study Hall Assistants

Study hall assistants were chosen at the beginning of each semester to aid the study hall teachers in checking the attendance with the gym, library and absentee lists before making the final list of students' absences.

Big S

To become a member of Big S, Stadium Lettermen's organization, a boy must have earned either one varsity letter in any sport or two reserve letters.

The officers for the fall term were: President, Ed Notley; vice president, Doug Corns; secretary, Skip Norton, and treasurer, Ron Tuttle. Mr. Levinson has been officiating as adviser to Big S. Their activities for the year have included a spring dance and acting as paddle boys at the football games.

Lunchroom Crew

Serving Stadium students during both lunches, cashiering, stacking trays, helping in the kitchen and cleaning up in the lunchroom are the duties of the lunchroom crew. These students are selected by Miss Miller, cafeteria manager, at the beginning of each semester and work one period each day. In return for their services they receive a free lunch worth 40 cents.

ROW 1: Ron Tuttle, Doug Corns, Ed Notley, Skip Norton, Dick Boyle, Bill Stevenson, Doug Shacklet, Bob Paige, Ray Spalding, Chuck Johnson, Ralph Long, Bill Zierow, Lloyd Albert, Dick Lowery, Wells Anderson, Jim Chamberlain, Bill Norton, Don Iams, Bill Marr, Wayne Davis, Dudley Panchot. ROW 2: Jim McCormack, Harry Compton, Dwight Johnson, Stan Monaghan, Bill Reid, Earl Smith, Dick Evans, Jim Driscoll, John McCorry, Ned Face, John Schartow, Ted Erichsen, Tom Medak, Dave Slotnick, Tom Dahl, Tom Rigney, Garry Bailey, Ken Addis. ROW 3: Bob Bourdon, Bob Monaghan, Herman Beyer, Ron Smith, Don Gilsdorf, Garry Hersey, Bob Hoskins, Roger Engberg, Bert Fisher, Jack Stephens, Ralph Wehmhoff, Dick Brynestad, Bud Waiss, Louis Youneman, Ben Fawcett, John Larsen, Rick Healy, Ed Adams, Cameron Haslam, Neal Nelson, Lewis Law, George Rickert, Gene Shortlidge. ROW 4: Dan Bigger, Dick Jardeen, Dave Bigger, David James, Bud Howell, Don Maitland, Ted Rose, Jim Fowler, Larry Martin, Harold Wolfe, Harry Nygard, Milton Gust, Bruce Andreasen, Bob Carlson, Bob La Hatt, Walter Krokenes, Gordon Bendick, Jack Christensen, Jorgen Husby, Ralph Loudin, Len Spanich.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Library Assistants

Working in the library is a job that not only gives valuable experience in library work but may give Triple S points or money.

Miss Kobetich offers a course of twelve lessons to any one wanting a credit for her work. Those who are not assistants are clerks and their job is to take attendance and library slips.

Retiring teachers have given the library many books, and Mrs. William Goering and the Women's Auxiliary to the Pierce County Medical Association have contributed magazine subscriptions.

Bond and Office Workers

Assisting Mrs. Pratt in the office this year were eight girls. Because the phone system in the building was out of order these girls, Marilyn Davies, Joan Frisbee, Pat Marth, Joan Pennington and Carol Picard, had the job of relaying all messages. They also did part of the filing. Lorraine Anderson, Betty Bentz and Jean De Wester were typists.

Bond and stamp workers who took care of the behind-the-scenes work on Thursdays helping Mr. Smith were Joyce Barratt, Shirley Enbom, Gloria Greene, Dorothy Jones and Dorothy Naper.

Motion Picture Operators

Assembling every morning in 317 for the day's assignments, the five boys and one girl who operated the motion picture projectors gave up their study halls to perform this service.

The films, shown under the visual education program, varied widely and covered a large number of subjects. Mr. Bakke was faculty adviser for the group.

Stage Crew

Behind the scenes, making it possible for assemblies, the Senior Class play, concerts and the opera to be a success was Stadium's stage crew, working under the direction of Mr. Westgate.

The duties of the crew were to build and paint scenery, manage the lighting and properties and adjust the public address system.

Student Nurses

Chosen from the home nursing classes are girls to help in the Red Cross room during the day. Working one period a day for two weeks, the student nurses take care of minor illnesses and injuries of students. Credit toward their grade is attained by these girls for this work.

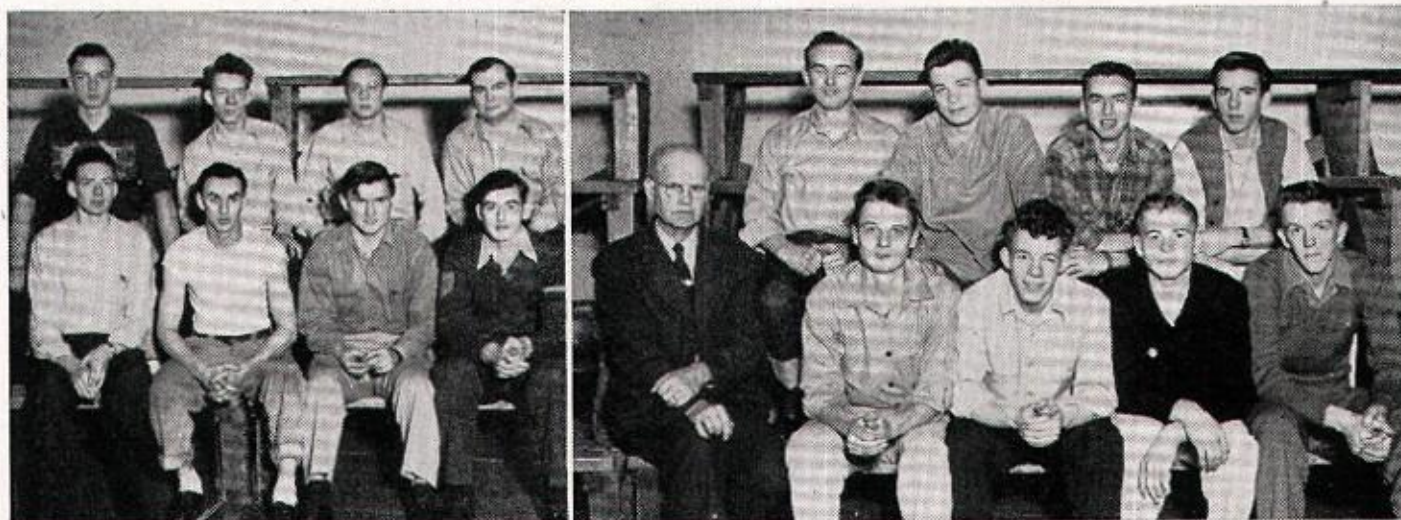

Adviser for this group is Miss Danielson, who is also the school nurse.

ROW 1: Wilbert Krones, Larry DuCharme, Neal Whobrey, Leslie Jones.

Bob La Hatt, Hazel Ann Manning, Ken Addis, Helen Gladstone, Tom Rigney.

DRUM MAJORETTES

Darlene Reynolds, Donna Waite, Alice Edwards, Marjie Miller, Don Moncrieff.

Yell Team

"Fight, Stadium Tigers!" is both the theme of the yell team and the beginning of the new Stadium fight song introduced by this peppy group. By almost perfect attendance at every game this year, the yell team really participated in the sportsmanship of the school.

With Ken Addis, yell king, leading the animated quintet, the others were: Helen Gladstone, queen; Hazel Manning, duchess; Tom Rigney and Bob La Hatt, dukes.

The five students have worked consistently this year to give the castle a better feeling of wholesome school spirit. Besides this, they have given Stadium several new yells and a series of pep assemblies, including three given in the bowl.

Drum Majorettes

Strutting with the band and Tigerannas in any kind of weather were the Stadium drum majorettes. Head majorette for this year was Alice Edwards. Others were Donalda Moncrieff, Marjie Joy Miller, Darlene Reynolds and Donna Waite.

Debate Club

Climaxing a successful year, four members of the Stadium Debate Club walked away with the state cross-questioning debate championship at a tournament held at the College of Puget Sound, Feb. 14 and 15, on the question: "Resolved, that federal government should provide a system of medical care available to all at public expense." The cup winners were Bill Bethke, Dick Drues, Bill Kidd and Dud Panchot.

The governing body of the club consisted of Bill Kidd president; Dick Drues, vice president; Barbara Swanson, secretary, and Dud Panchot, treasurer.

Other activities during the year consisted of a class tournament in the fall and a practice tournament in the early spring, with 14 schools from western Washington participating.

Speakers' Bureau

Because the proposed P. A. system was not installed before the fall term commenced, Speakers' Bureau continued to be of service to the school by making announcements in roll rooms every Monday morning concerning the activities of the coming week.

The cabinet this year consisted of Sally Waller, president; Louise Fullinwider, vice president; Shirley Willis, secretary, and Nancy Riehl, treasurer, with Mr. Albrecht as faculty adviser.

Sahasa Cabinet

Sahasa, the Girl Reserves organization of Stadium, this year was given the new and more expressive title, "Y-Teens," to the pleasure of more than 260 members.

During a successful year various community services, including collections of food and clothing for needy families abroad and donations to worthy organizations, were accomplished. In the late spring the social highlight of the year was the annual formal, "Rhapsody in Roses." Other activities and social events during the year included the fall tolo, "Autumn Reverie," and educational and helpful discussions, movies and panels which were of great value to all Sahasa members.

Officers were: Rosemarie Gosselin, president; Gloria Greene, vice president; Virginia McNerthney, recording secretary; Lorraine Bottiger, corresponding secretary, and Sally Waller, treasurer. Miss Phyllis Porter of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Minton of Stadium acted as advisers.

Victory Through Prayer Club

Meeting each noon for ten minutes, Victory Through Prayer Club carried on various activities under the leadership of Lylia Smith, first lunch, and Isabel Klingsmith, second lunch. The program each day consisted of several minutes of prayer and the reading of articles from Christian magazines. On Wednesdays a pastor or Christian worker spoke.

ROW 3: Shirley Willis, Maurice Trimmer, Henry Pearson, Bill McCullough, Lyle Fisher, Colleen Pickert, Miriam Hansen, Gladys Woodard.

Sportsmen's Club

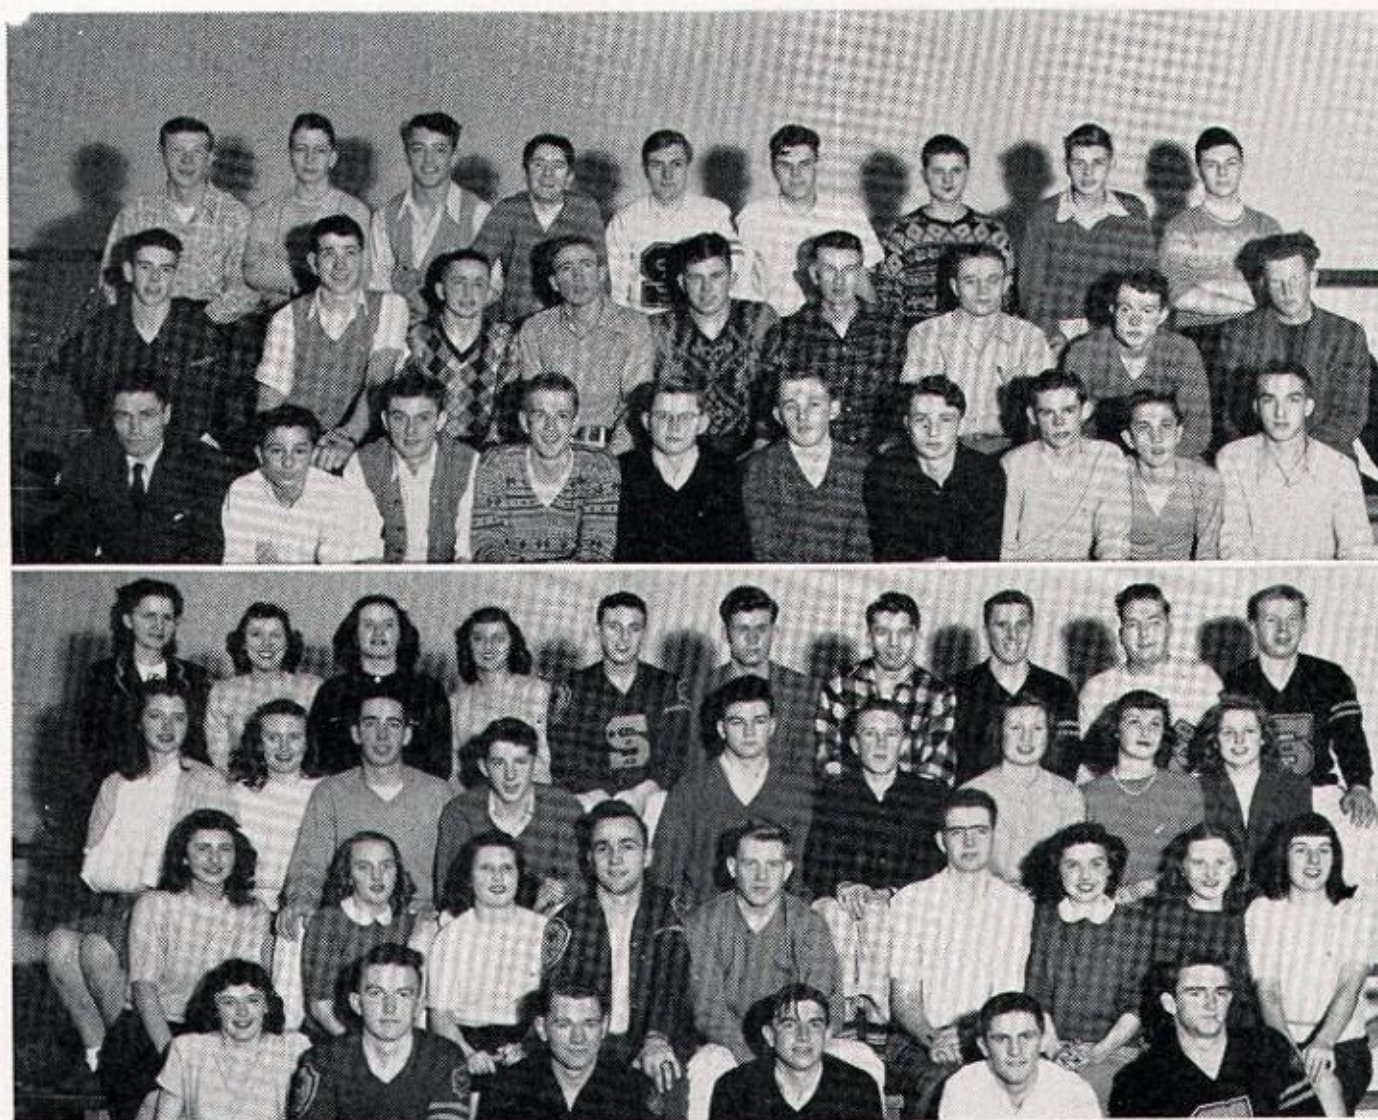

The object of the Sportsmen's Club is to further Don Stadion's interest in hunting and fishing. "The club is really on the ball now," claimed Walt Bragdon, president of Sportsmen's Club for the last two semesters. As this group was just getting organized in the fall, the only other officer for that term was Bill Andrews, who functioned as vice president. The other officers for the spring term were: Jerry Leach, vice president; John Larsen, secretary; John Friars, treasurer; Dick Koenig, sergeant at arms, and Chuck Jorgenson, advertising manager.

Sportsmen's Club met on alternate Mondays in 309. They had several guest speakers and participated in numerous fishing trips this year. Mr. Kanarr was the adviser.

Ski Club

Getting back to pre-war schedule, the Stadium Ski Club sponsored several trips to the mountain this year. The ski team won the city championship with Weldon Howe, Bert Fisher, Don Gilsdorf, Ron Smith, Art Overman and Royce Ward, in the combined. Bert Fisher won the slalom and Art Overman took first place in the downhill.

This year's officers were: Bert Fisher, president; Royce Ward, vice president; Ron Smith, secretary, and Don Gilsdorf, treasurer.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB

Retail Club

To prepare students for outside employment is the aim of the Retail Club. This year the officers of the club traveled to Bremerton and to Lincoln to visit the officers of their similar organizations. In January delegates were sent to Olympia to join in the first state-wide Retail Club meeting. Beverly Haywood, Stadium student, was elected first president of this new group.

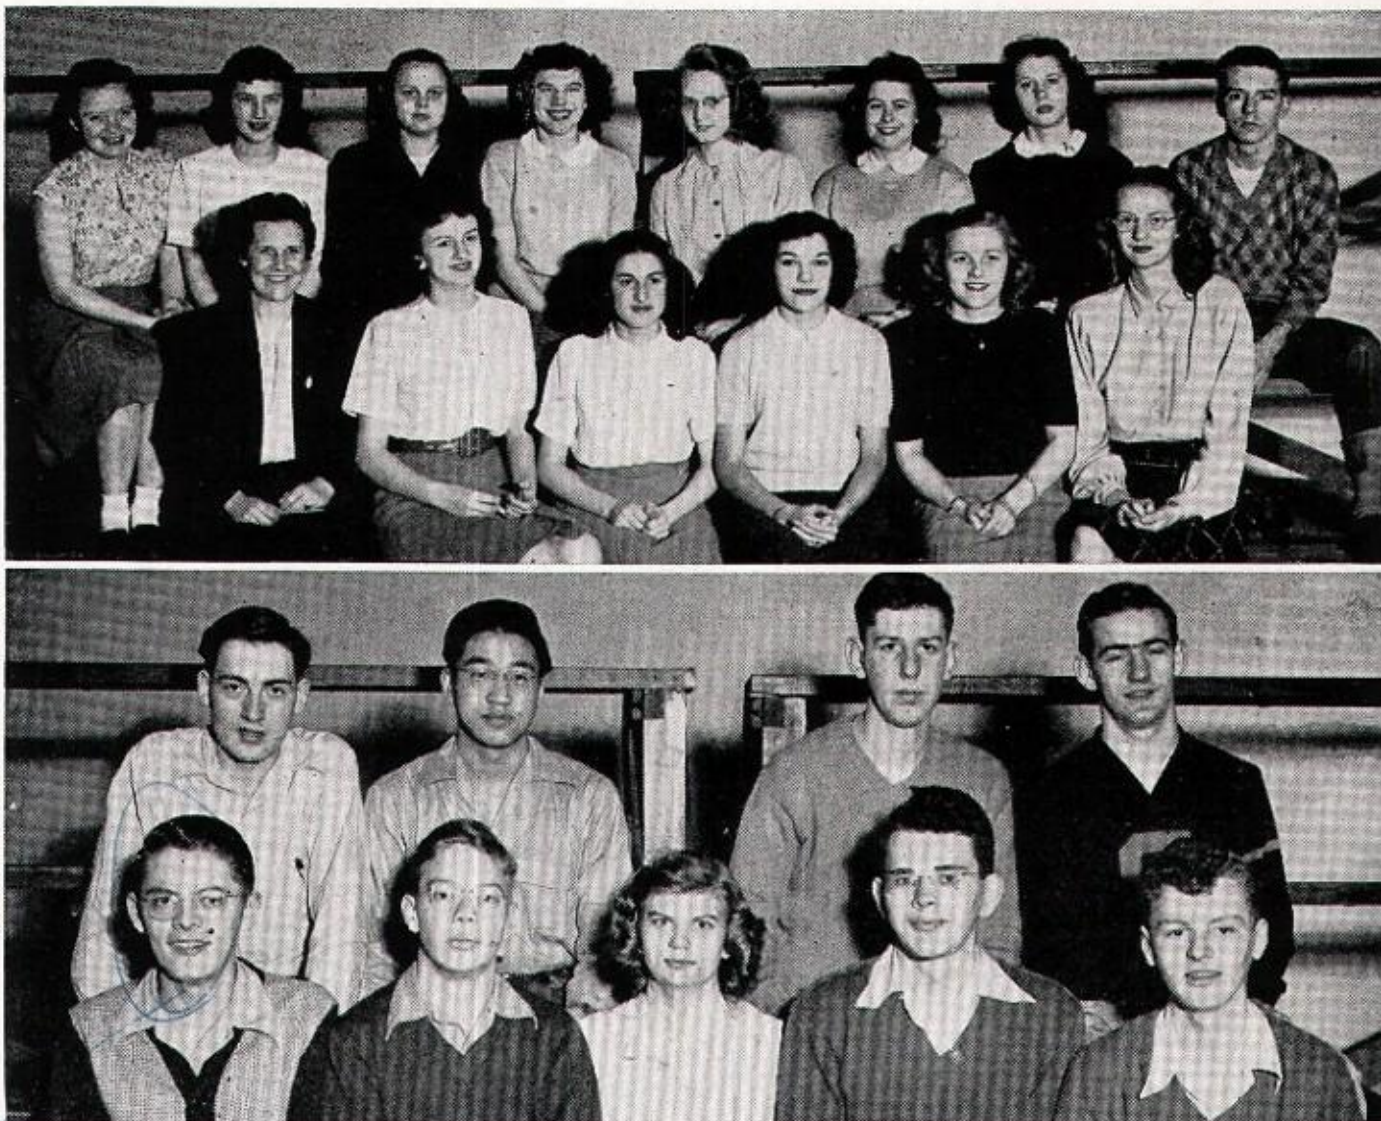

Fall officers were: Betty Maurmann, president; Lillian Ballman, vice president; Jo Ann Schlichte, secretary, and Beverly Haywood, treasurer.

Leaders for the spring semester were: Joan Frisbee, president; Caroline DeRosa, vice president; Jo Ann Schlichte, secretary, and Beverly Haywood, treasurer.

Science Club

Engaging in many educational discussions and hearing lectures by outside speakers, the Science Club spent an interesting year under the guidance of Mr. Kanarr. The officers for the year were Fred Franklin, president; Shun Mei Ling, vice president, and George Ann Frank and Phil Barker, secretary-treasurers.

Science Club met on alternate Mondays and membership was open to everyone.

Mariners

"Sailing, Sailing"—Mariners cruised through an eventful year of swimming and skating parties, exchange dances with the Sea Scouts, assisting at the tuberculosis office and cruising around Puget Sound. Meetings were held every Thursday night at the Pilgrim Congregational Church.

Officers were: Claire Reisinger, yeoman, Joanne Watson, boatswain, Juanita Ruck, super cargo; Pat Britton, first mate; Mrs. Macemon, skipper. Crew leaders were Nancy Kurrell and Gloria Stuermer; coxswains, Joanne Lowry and Lois Melland.

Rifle Club

To teach inexperienced riflemen how to shoot safely and accurately is the aim of Rifle Club. A course of qualifications is set up for the beginners by the National Rifle Association. Members meet twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, in the girls' gym to strive for better marksmanship.

John Schartow was the only rifleman to receive the honor of distinguished rating from the National Rifle Association.

Officers were: John Schartow, president; Dave Bigger, vice president; Helen Gansen, secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Giltner, adviser.

ROW 1: Don Dean, James Thomas, Bill Reid, Don Gilsdorf, Larry Martin, Terry Tate, Harold Wolfe, Bruce Andreasen, Bud Nelson, Mr. Brown. ROW 2: Ed Balarezo, Ed Edwards, Doug Corns, Louis Youngman, Skip Norton, Bill Zierow, John Larsen, John Friars, Chuck House. ROW 3: Bob Paige, Roger Engberg, Bob Abel, Dan Inveen, Bob Nordstrom, Bob Baker, Bob La Hatt, Ed Notley, Darrell Grything, Jim Fowler.

Boys' Golf Club

Providing and promoting interest in school golf are the main aims of the Stadium Golf Club. The group was also in charge of golf tournaments.

The retiring officers — Larry Martin, president; Chuck Caddy, vice president; Jim Fowler secretary-treasurer, and Bruce Andreasen, handicap chairman — turned over their duties to Terry Tate, Bud Nelsen, Chuck House and Louis Youngman, respectively. Mr. Brown acted as adviser and coach to the club.

Bowling League

Meeting every Wednesday at the North End alleys, the Bowling League offered any girl who bowled 34 games an athletic point.

Officers for this year were: Joan Johnson, president and manager, and Pat Kezich, secretary-treasurer.

Pep Club

Starting a successful year off in a big way, Pep Club gained possession of the pep trophy at the Turkey Day game for the second consecutive year.

Meeting every other Monday after school, 97 members planned various activities and projects. A homecoming dance was given after the first home basketball game, which was with Bellingham. Other projects were the making of signs and posters advertising games, urging the support of the team and the presentation of skits in pep assemblies.

The yell team and Pep Club president were invited to Everett in February, and in turn the Everett yell team was invited to be Stadium's guest before the Stadium-Everett basketball game Feb. 14.

Officers during the year were: Ed Balarezo, president; Hap Wolfe, vice president; Barbara Horjes, secretary; Larry Martin, treasurer; Evie Gagliardi, social chairman.

Stamp Club

Under the leadership of Melvin Hoffman, Stamp Club carried out a year of activities directed toward the furthering of interest in stamp collecting among Stadions. Members attending the meetings, which were held twice a month in room 115, heard speakers and took part in discussions concerning their hobby. Auctions were also held.

Officers were: Melvin Hoffman, president; Karl Humiston, vice president; Roy La Plante, secretary, and Bill Forbes, treasurer. Miss Cooper was adviser.

ROW 2: Larry Martin, Harold Wolfe, Ed Balarezo, Ted Rose.

Music - Drama

Clara Bowe and Jim Ernst captured the romantic leads in the opera, "Katinka," which was directed by Mr. Johnson.

"Katinka"

Romance, mystery and comedy were all combined in Rudolph Friml's light opera "Katinka." The thirty-fifth annual production of the music department was under the capable direction of Mr. Johnson and dramatic coaching of Mrs. Gaul. Starring Clara Bowe and Jim Ernst in the romantic leads, the musical was rated as tops in the list of Stadium presentations.

As the lovely Katinka, Clara Bowe's rich, sweet voice charmed everyone from the Russian Black Sea down to the exotic streets of Old Stamboul, Constantinople and Vienna. Jim Ernst delighted audiences with his portrayal of Ivan Dimitri, Katinka's lover.

Sid Bowe, in the comedy lead, stole the show as Thaddeus T. Hopper, a wealthy American. All hats were off to Rosalie Hoar, who took part of Mrs. Hopper for the first performance because of the illness of Rosemary Tollefson, who was regularly cast in the role. Rosalie had only five hours to prepare herself, but due to the backing of the cast and her own skill, she did a wonderful job.

Filling other important rolls were Roald Reitan as the arrogant husband of Katinka, Boris Strogoff; Lavonne Schuler, first wife to Boris, and Rosemarie Gosselin as Katinka's mother.

Admirable assistance was given to the leads by those having supporting parts. They were: Laurine Schore (Vera), Tom Rigney (Petrov), Patricia Reese (Diva), Delford McLaughlin (Herr Knopf), Alvin Tone (M. Pierre), Dudley Panchot (slave), Ronald Newgard (Arif Bey), Harold Arnold (Halil), Harold Larsen (Fritz), Dean Peart (Abdul), Jim Hagen (spy), Jackie Schore (Pauline), Merle Lentz (George), and Jack Macpherson (waiter).

The dancing chorus, under the direction of Cathryn Damon, Gloria Kristofferson, Marjie Joy Miller and Jackie Schore, successfully reached its goal of giving Stadium something new and original in the way of dances. Members of the chorus were Lorraine Bottiger, Patti Boyle, Carol Cheim, Janie Dockeray, Janine Eklund, Louise Fullinwider, Virginia Gundstrom, Joan Hopper, Myrna Juntti, Anne McCrea, Donalda Moncrieff, Sue Pringle, Eleanor Raynor, Darlene Reynolds, Nancy Riehl, Pat Rossiter, Helene Shugard, Gen Thompson and Regina Wacula.

Student personnel supervisors working behind the scenes were greatly responsible for the swiftly moving and thoroughly successful performances. They were Joyce Baker, Joyce Christie, Delora Johnson, Barbara Knott, Virginia Neibaur and Doris Soder. Pianists were Shirley Mason, Nancy Newell, Charles Rueger and Maxine Shaw; harp, Joy Lundgren.

Girls' Glee

Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Johnson, performed as a group for many organizations on different occasions during the year. The 80 members appeared in programs for the Elks' Club, assemblies at Jason Lee and Stadium, and represented Stadium in the all-city concert given in the spring. They also sang at commencement.

The largest job of the Glee Club as a whole was providing songs and background for this year's opera. All supervisors and leads were chosen from this group of singers.

The Christmas carolers rendered yuletide songs during the holiday season and also sang at Madigan General Hospital and various service clubs. This group appeared in the Exchange Assembly in January in an interesting minstrel show. The carolers were: Clara Bowe, Joyce Brynestad, Rosemarie Gosselin, Yvonne Gauthier, Dorothy Johnson, Lillian Finson, Rosalie Hoar, Lavonne Schuler, Dorothy Moe, Jackie Schore, Laurine Schore, Rosemary Tollefson, Genevieve Martin.

Officers were: President, Rosalie Hoar; vice president, Lavonne Schuler; secretary-treasurer, Joyce Brynestad.

Boys' Glee

Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Johnson, added much toward the enjoyment of the opera, "Katinka," assemblies and the annual Memorial Day program.

Officers for the year were: Roald Reitan, president; Harold Larsen, vice president, and Harold Arnold, secretary-treasurer. Charles Rueger and Bob Evans were accompanists for the group.

Band

Come sunshine or rain, one of the most faithful organizations at Stadium has been the band, under the direction of Mr. Delwen B. Jones.

Donned in its uniforms of blue and gold, the 78-piece group was a booster of school spirit at football games, and during the half-times performed various routines on the field. From this group was chosen the pep band, which added life to pep assemblies and basketball games. During the year the band was also invited to participate in special functions, including the Daffodil parade.

Manifesting its ability on the stage as well, the band presented two concerts, a mid-winter swing program and the annual spring concert. Getting back to pre-war days, the group traveled to Bellingham during football season and participated in the Northwest music contest.

Twelve musicians from the band made creditable showings at the Western Washington solo contest held at Everett in March. They were Barbara Combs, Jim Fifer, Larry Hoover, Lon Hoover, Janet Hunt, Wayne Knight, Frank Maddison, Lois Raver, John Schartow, Joanne Stebbins, Bruce Thompson and Margaret Ward. John Schartow, Louis Sinclair and Joanne Stebbins represented the band at the Northwest Music Educators' Conference.

To aid Mr. Jones was the duty of the officers. Those elected for the year were Gloria Mayfield, head drum majorette and secretary; Charles Candoo, president; John Schartow, manager; Mary Tucker, librarian, and Shirley Willis, publicity manager. Darlene Reynolds, Marjie Miller, Donalda Moncrieff, Alice Edwards and Donna Waite were the drum majorettes.

At the end of the year the Young Men's Business Club was sponsoring a drive to raise money for re-outfitting the three Tacoma high school bands.

Tigerannas

Turning out, rain or shine, to learn their formations, Tigerannas, the marching girls in their white uniforms, added to the enjoyment of Stadium's football games. The Tigerannas had a successful year, being co-sponsors of a pencil drive and holding a dance after the Bremerton-Stadium football game to finance their trip to Bellingham.

The highlight of the year was the honor of marching at the University of Washington homecoming game.

This year's officers were: President, Joanne Knapp; secretary, Ann McCrea, and vice president-treasurer, Gloria Greene. Miss Sanders was the adviser.

Orchestra

The accompaniment of soloists, dancers and the chorus for this year's musical production, "Katinka" by Rudolph Friml, was the job of a well-balanced and capable orchestra. Other activities of this group, under the direction of Mr. Johnson, were performances at service clubs and other schools. Several assemblies were given at school for the enjoyment of Stadions.

On the managing end of the orchestra were: Dolores C. Johnson, president; George Gruel, vice president, and Ruth Martin, secretary.

Thespian Cabinet

Thespians, the dramatic club of Stadium, was led through a successful year by a capable cabinet, consisting of Gloria Nelson, president; Elaine Puddicombe, vice president; Joyce Brynestad, secretary, and Ann Joyce Bachrach, treasurer.

Various committee heads chosen to assist the officers in directing the club's activities were: Rosalie Hoar, program; Billie Mellis, playreading; Dolores Johnson, typing; Helen Fincham, publicity; Bill Bethke, properties, and Ella Mae Garrity, attendance.

Instead of the annual Thespian matinee, an all-school play, "June Mad," was presented in May, starring Elaine Puddicombe and Mike Quinlivan. Others in the cast included Gloria Nelson, Bill Bethke, Chuck Jorgenson, Jim Rasmussen, Rosalie Hoar, George LeCompte, Jeannie Perella, Joyce Brynestad, Merle Lentz, Ella Mae Garrity and Jim Ernst.

National Thespians

Fifteen Stadions this year earned the highest honor that dramatic enthusiasts may be awarded by being admitted into National Thespians. Points for this honor society are earned by participation in plays, including one public performance, and by being in regular productions at meetings. Taking a semester class in dramatics is also required.

Senior Class Players

MRS. GAUL

"That Girl Patsy"

Leaving both the students and adults well satisfied, the Senior Class play, "That Girl Patsy," presented on Dec. 12 and 13, contained three acts filled with romance, comedy and mystery.

With Gloria Kristofferson and Chuck Jorgenson in the romantic leads and a fine supporting cast, the play was well performed under the direction of Mrs. Gaul, dramatics teacher.

Julia, played by Rojean Knight, was a spoiled, wealthy miss who was wooed by two. Bruce Thompson portrayed the character of Fred Coulson, an ardent lover who did not get the one girl he wanted, and Phil Barker, playing Professor Orlando Powers, was stiff competition for Fred. Julia was helped out a serious situation with a blackmailer, performed by Bill Boyle, by Patsy (Gloria Kristofferson), an orphan from the Girls' Uplift Club, who was taken into the Warren household by Mrs. Warren (Lavonne Schuler), much to the disapproval of Mr. Warren, a dignified, wealthy, irate father, acted by Dean Peart.

Jeannie Perella, as Violet Manners, was Bob Warren's (Chuck Jorgenson) girl, that is, until Patsy came along.

Gloria Masterson was a business-like lady who supported the Uplift Club. Special credit was given to Dolores Johnson, a likeable English maid, and the good-humored Irish gardener, Tom Rigney, for their fine dialogues.

Fall World

With an unusually small staff of 17 students, The World began its twenty-fifth year, with Shirley Willis as editor and Mrs. Cook, a newcomer, as adviser. This was the second semester during which Shirley held the top position. News editor was Edith Bower, while the feature staff was headed by Joan Thrasher.

The humor column was written by Charles Rueger with the help of the Journalism I cubs. The whole staff contributed to the "The Stadium Way," a weekly feature of amusing happenings around school. For the senior writeups, "Brown Castle Bricks," which were written by the feature staff, a new type of pictures was used. Instead of the regular block silhouettes or pen and ink sketches of the outstanding seniors, their faces appeared in photographs.

Sports editor was John Frlan, whose regular staff consisted of only three members. Other reporters were members of the Journalism 1 class. Joanne Cinelli wrote the girls' sports column, "Ben Gals."

Donna Arnold was business manager, while Helen Gansen, as advertising manager, was in charge of a group of nine girls who solicited the ads for paper.

A new feature during the fall was the addition of a column entitled "It's All Yours," devoted to letters written by members of the student body and answered by the editor. Many interesting questions and problems of the school were brought to light by these letters.

Several issues during the semester consisted of ten pages, instead of the customary eight.

The staff artist was Roald Reitan, who drew the weekly "Junior of the Week," and photographers were Bob Albrecht and Ed Balarezo.

Spring World

The severe shortage of reporters during the fall semester was slightly alleviated in the spring. The editorial staff of 30 was under the supervision of Edith Bower, who wrote the editorial column entitled "Who! Me?"

In charge of getting in the news and assigning it to the reporters, Marian Sterne held the position of news editor.

The co-feature editors, Rella Castor and Barbara Stowe, were responsible for the second and third pages, while the "Jester's Bells" were jingled by Bob Barton.

Continuing on the staff for the fourth semester, Shirley Willis was student adviser.

Bill Bethke, as sports editor, directed the five sports writers during the semester. Iris Gilbreath wrote the girls' sports column, "Ben Gals."

Photographers were Bob Albrecht and Ed Balarezo, who took the sports and news pictures.

Donna Arnold continued as business manager, with Pat Marshall as her assistant. The advertising department consisted of ten solicitors who were directed by Marilyn Spike.

The Tahoma

To make the silver anniversary edition of The Tahoma the most outstanding in all its 25 years was the aim of Shirley Willis, editor of the 1947 yearbook, and its staff.

Maroon with silver wash was chosen as the color scheme for the padded books and to continue the anniversary motif, the inside covers represented the parade of students marching through 25 years of life at Stadium. Designing the cover was the art staff, Alice Palmer, Roald Reitan and Joan Thrasher.

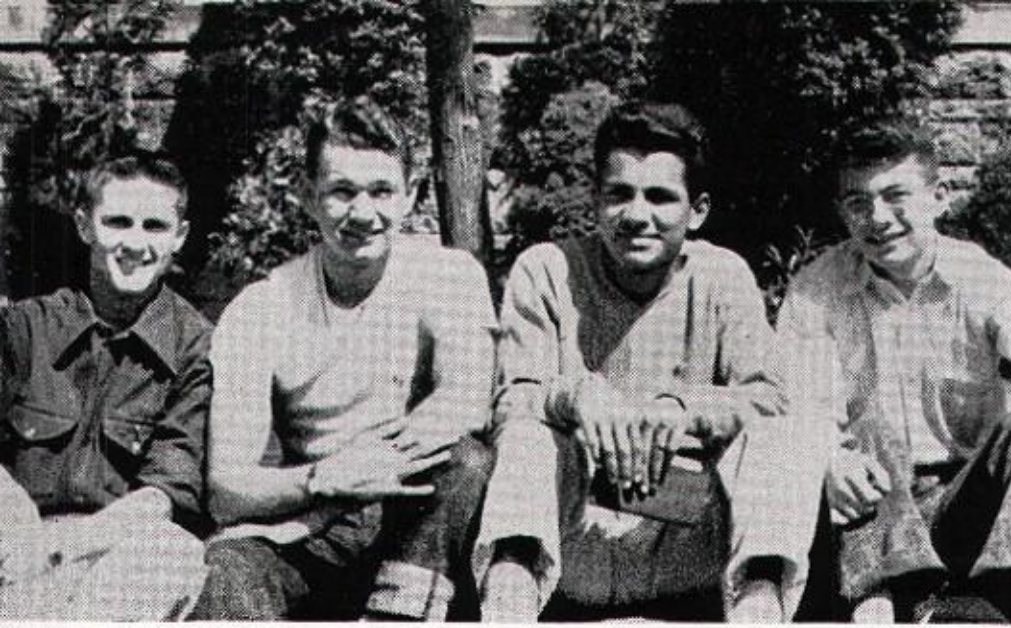

Washington Engraving Company was awarded the contract for the engraving of the book and Pioneer, Inc., again did the printing. Fine Arts Studios was selected to take the Senior Class photographs and group pictures.

Shirley was chosen as editor and Jeanne Shugard as business manager by the '46 Junior Class cabinet. Aiding Shirley was Avis Face, assistant editor. Staff photographers were Bob Albrecht, Ed Balarezo, Don Gilsdorf and Ron Smith. Janine Eklund was in charge of senior writeups and Marian Sterne directed the index. Senior picture appointments were under the supervision of Nancy Williams and Sue Pringle was snapshot contest chairman. In the spring a skating party was held at the Ice Palace, drawing a large crowd of students and adults.

Journalism Advisers

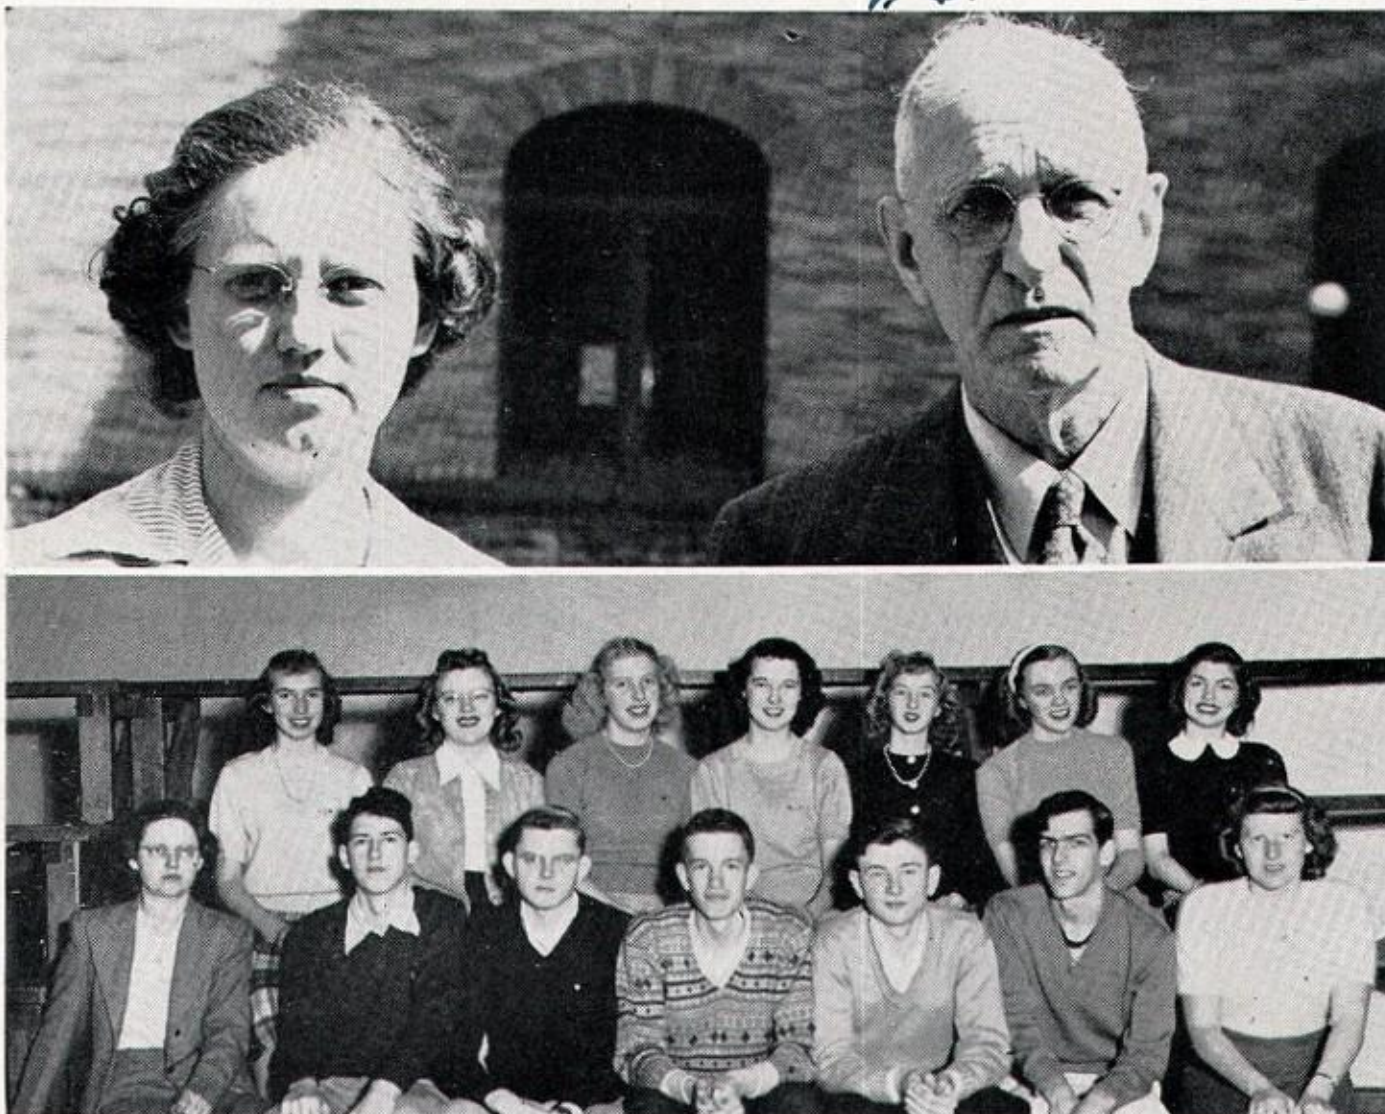

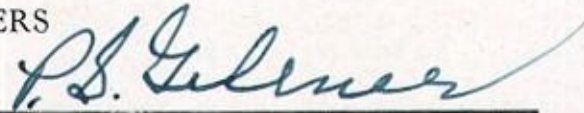

The twenty-fifth anniversary of The Tahoma also commemorates the twenty-fifth year during which The World has been printed for Stadions. Advisers for the two publications are Mrs. Cook for The World, and Mr. Giltner for The Tahoma.

Financial director of The Tahoma since 1923, Mr. Giltner has been general adviser, too, for the past 13 publications. He is also financial adviser for The World.

New to Stadium journalists this year, Mrs. Cook has taken over the duties of editing copy for The Tahoma in addition to her regular work of being World adviser, and teaching journalism and English.

Quill and Scroll

With the January initiation of nine members, the roster of the Melville E. Stone chapter of Quill and Scroll was increased to 14, the largest it has been for several years. To attain membership in the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, one must be an honor roll student and must have done exceptional work in journalism. During the year the club engaged in various service, literary and social activities.

Officers for the year were: Shirley Willis, president; Joan Thrasher, vice president; Jeanne Shugard, secretary; Bill Bethke, treasurer, and Mrs. Cook, adviser.

Athletics

For the first time since 1938 the Stadium gridmen enjoyed an unbeaten season, capturing both Cross-State and City crowns as a fitting climax to Coach Heinrick's career.

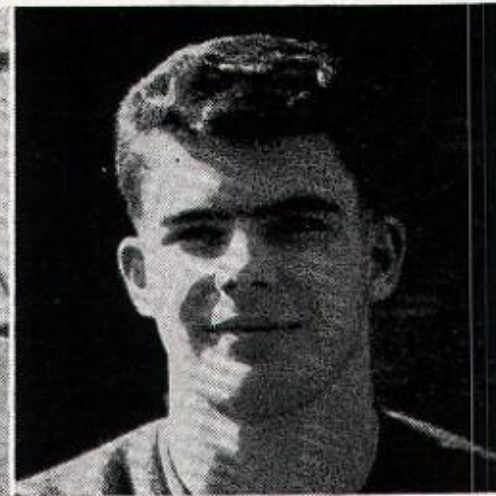

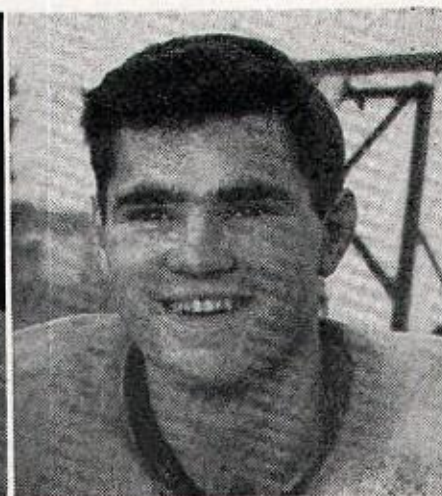

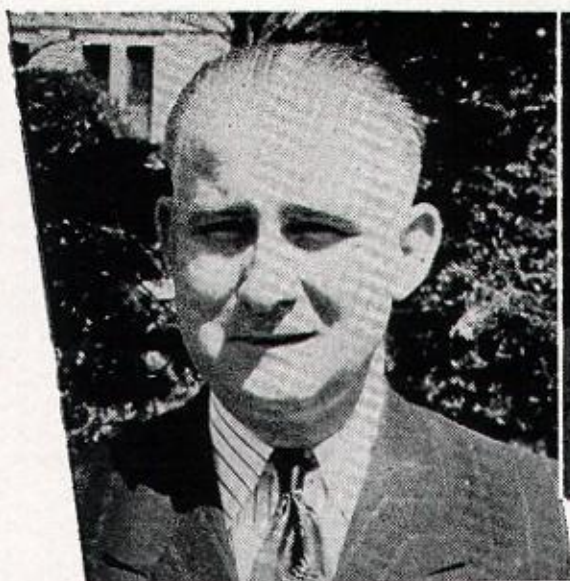

The Tigers got off to a seemingly bad start, barely defeating the Bells and losing to Lincoln in the Grid-Go-Round. The football prophets immediately began predicting an unusually poor season for the Royals. Despite this the Bengals lashed out twice from the underdog spot, trouncing Clover Park 20-0 and the Lynx 14-7 in the Kings-X tilt. This was followed by a startling 33-7 victory over Bellingham when the Stadium squad traveled north for their only game away from home.

Just when the Tigers seemed in high gear, an inspired Bellarmine eleven sent hopes crashing with a brilliant 0-0 tie game. The succeeding week the Bengals redeemed themselves with a smashing 33-0 win over Seattle Prep with several members of the team out due to injuries. The next game the Royals crushed Bremerton 13-0, and then a much vaunted Everett eleven fell before the Stadium juggernaut in a see-saw game across the gridiron which finally ended with Tigers on the long end of a 6-0 tally. It might be said that the Cross-state crown was at stake in the Everett-Stadium tilt, as the two were considered the best teams in the league, with Everett given a slight margin.

Coach Heinrick is carried off the field after mentoring his last grid contest at Stadium.

With both Cross-State and City titles hanging in the balance, the Bengals took on the Lincoln squad in the annual Turkey-Day tilt. Anticipating little trouble and encountering less, a smooth functioning Royal team allowed the Railsplitters to score only once in the final minutes of the game, handing them a 21-7 defeat.

In the statistical columns, Stadium made 73 first downs to 50 by their opponents, 1585 yards rushing to 501 by their opponents but only 241 yards passing to a total of 389 by their adversaries. The Tigers were on the receiving end of many penalties, as shown by the loss of 350 yards in this manner.

The co-captains for the year were Bruce Andreasen and Wells Anderson. Milt Gust was elected for the inspirational award and Sam Baker and Dick Boyle were chosen to captain the team for the ensuing season.

This year five men from the Stadium squad were chosen for first string berths on the Cross-State All Star team. They were tackles, Bill Greco and Bill Kowalski; center, Dick Boyle; halfback, Ray Spalding, and fullback, Sam Baker.

Never a flashy or razzle-dazzle team, this season's squad was characterized by its dogged determination, hard-hitting line and backs, and its will to win.

Reserve Football

Perhaps the most over-worked and under-publicized group of athletes in Stadium is the reserve grid team. Turning out night after night, these boys served as "cannon fodder" for the varsity to set up, knock down and line up again. Although only 12 boys garnered reserve football letters, there were other men on the squad who "graduated" to the varsity during the course of the season and earned varsity monograms. The reservists played only one game, which was with the Abe seconds, and the tilt ended in a 26-12 loss for Coach Levinson's men. Coach Heinrick's aim to build a good nucleus for next year's eleven kept the seconds away from other games and hard at scrimmages with the varsity. In the final analysis, the strategy paid off, for the constant drill with the first team has left the new football coach a wealth of players well versed in varsity techniques to supplement the returning lettermen.

Sophomore Football

The sophomore football squad turned in a satisfying season, although Lincoln beat them out of the City crown by a narrow margin. They copped four out of seven games during the season, trouncing both Clover Park and Puyallup, who were considered the strongest teams in the district.

At the end-of-the-season banquet, Jim Wolfe and Jack Day were elected co-captains of the squad, while Kenney Fengler received the coveted inspirational award. Letters and awards were given to 25 boys and two managers.

Managers

The boys and girls who do the unwanted jobs and receive little praise are the managers. They perform many important tasks and are necessary to any sport, which could not function properly without managers.

Taking care of equipment and uniforms, keeping records, acting as water boys and helping the coaches in many ways are a few of the boys' diverse and varied duties. For these services the boys are awarded managers letters. The girls and their assistants take charge of the Diana activities, aiding the gym instructors.

Junior Football

The Bengal Juniors took terrific drubbings in several mismatched games, twice by the Bremerton "B" squad and once by the Lincoln reserves. They won one game of the five played when they beat the Stadium Sophs and then lost again to the Bellarmine eleven. Ben Fawcett, Ray Barnes and Roger Engberg were elected to fill the co-captains duties, and Kimball Dorwin received the inspirational award. Myron Carr, former coach at Stadium, was back and took over the job of mentoring the junior squad.

Coaches

Stadium athletes may be thankful for the able direction and instruction they receive at the hands of their coaches.

Two of Stadium's best-known and honored coaches, Mr. Heinrick and Mr. Lowman, who will always be remembered for their fine teams, are retiring from coaching.

Stadium was blessed with two new coaches, Mr. M. Carr and Mr. Scott, who coached wrestling and baseball, respectively. Mr. Levinson also deserves a lot of credit, having held down positions as coach of reserve football, reserve basketball and varsity track. Coach Streeter should be praised for the top-notch swimming teams he is turning out. The coaches for girls' sports are Miss Minton and Miss Bernard.

COACH LOWMAN

Varsity Basketball

Although the Lynx came from behind to deprive Stadium of the City cage title, no Castle hoop fan could say the season was a loss as far as thrills and the Cross-State league were concerned. Coming down the home stretch in late February, Coach Lowman's charges were trying so hard to win that they tightened up and dropped three of their crucial contests by two point margins ending up in the second slot.

The annual Hoop-Go-Round saw the home swishers fall before a Lynx onslaught and thereby eliminated from the tourney. As the Bengals continued in non-conference play, Puyallup, Buckley and Walla Walla all succumbed before the Redclad tide, but Clover Park put another blot on the record as they squeezed in three quick markers before the klaxon sounded and won 32-31.

Launching their ship of basketball warfare in choppy Cross-State waters on Jan. 10, the Lowmen revenged themselves for the Hoop-Go defeat, as they subdued the Abes easily 49-37. Continuing in the win column, the Tigers downed Prep, 51-36, but then lost to a undeniable Bellarmine team, 26-24. In retaliation the Stadium steam-roller crushed an underdog Bellingham quintet, 61-39, and then plunged into busy week's work.

Jan. 31 saw the Lynx topple again by 51-40, but Bastille happiness was short-lived, for, on the Thursday following, the "red hots" from Bremerton moved into town and administered Stadium's initial Cross-State setback, 61-46. Hard on the heels of this blow came Stadium's second crack at the hands of Bellarmine, with last minute free-shots pulling the Bells out in front, 36-34.

Snapping their discouraging loss streak, the Castle hoopsters climbed back to a 45-all tie through a rugged fourth stanza with Seattle Prep and then went on to win in the overtime, 57-51, with Garry Hersey and Ed Notley leading the way. Smashing Everett in a pair of close ones, walloping Bellingham again and dropping a repeat engagement to Bremerton, the Bastille five wound up its league season. In their two remaining games with Bellarmine Stadium's maplemen defeated a faltering Lion Team, but then lost two to the vastly improved Railsplitters to see the City title and a chance to go to the state tourney trickle away.

At the season's close Coach Lowman announced his retirement after 18 years in the helmsman's spot, and Garry Hersey was chosen inspirational winner. No captain was selected because there will be a new coach next fall.

The reserves lead a hard life, playing in many of the preliminary contests before varsity tilts and working out with the team.

The squad was exceptionally good, dropping only 3 out of 18 games played. The Tiger reserves snagged the city championship for themselves and made Cross-State runners-up.

Sophomore Basketball

The sophomore basketball squad is one of the best training grounds for the future varsity men.

If these boys play the same brand of ball the next two years as they exhibited this season, Stadium can expect a "hot" basketball team. Of 28 games played, they dropped only five. In addition, they secured both the City title and the Pierce County Sophomore League crown. Wendall Kibbe was voted the inspirational award winner.

Reserve Wrestling

The reserve wrestlers are a little-known, little-publicized group, although they work as hard as any squad in Stadium.

They only had two meets, both of which they dropped to Lincoln by a close margin. The grapplers wrestle every week among themselves to determine who will take part in coming matches, so it is hard to pick out a definite group as a reserve team. Letters are awarded according to points.

Varsity Ski Team

Laurels went to the Stadium ski team in March when it captured the Tacoma high school championship for the fourth straight time. Sponsored by the Tacoma News-Tribune, the trophy went to the Castle squad consisting of two teams. Individual gold medals went to Weldon Howe, combined; Art Overman, downhill, and Bert Fisher, slalom.

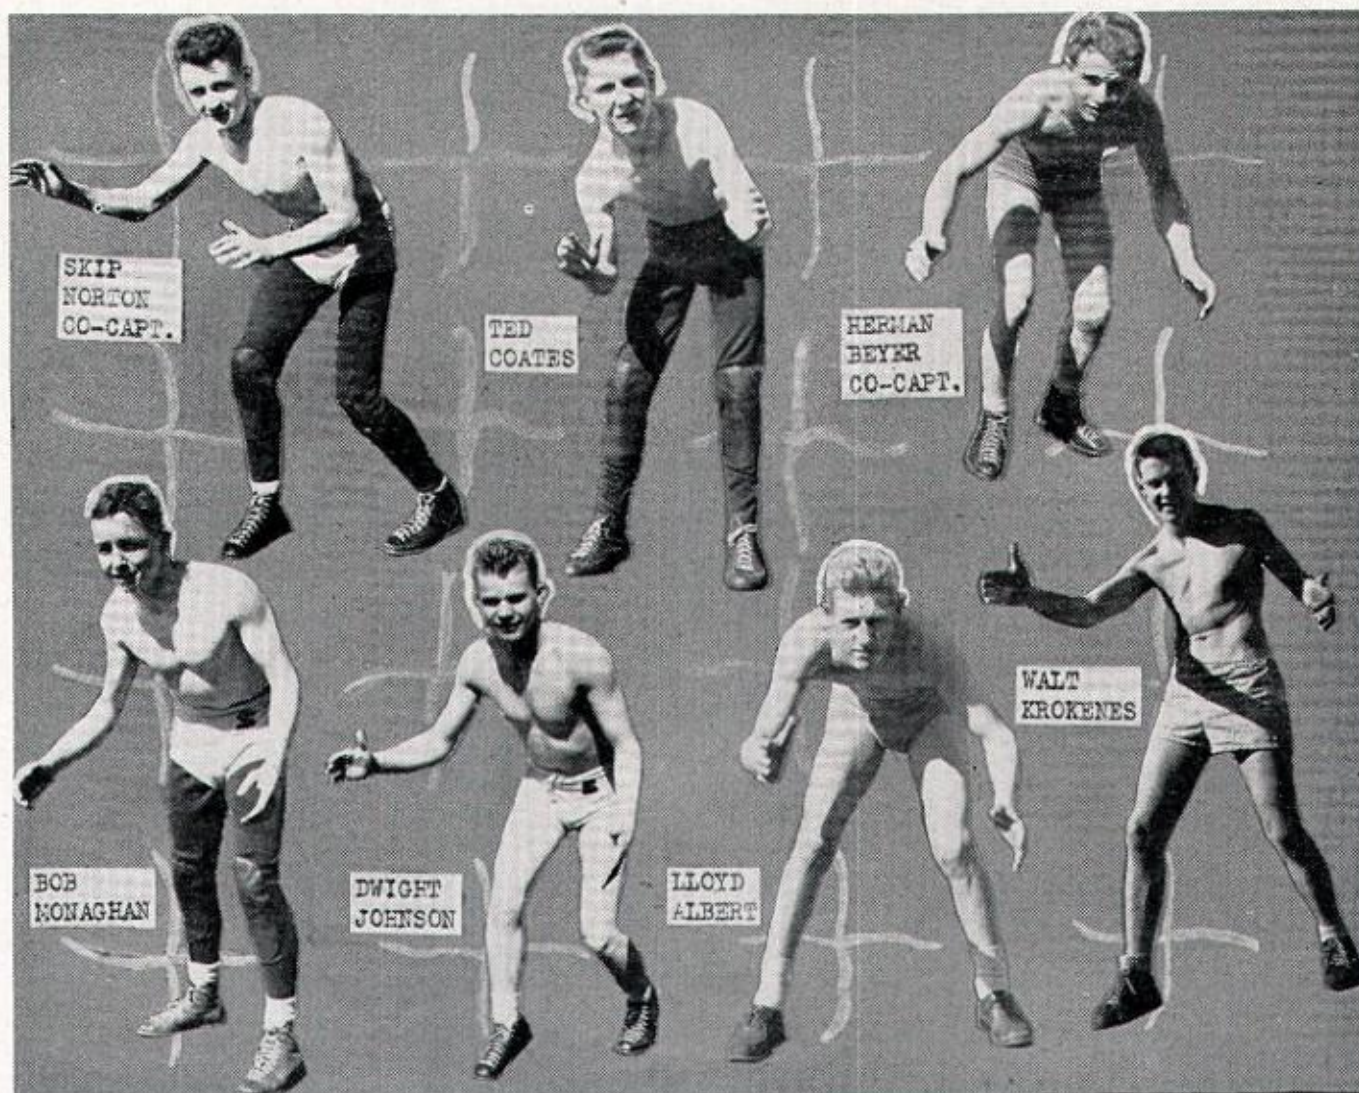

COACH CARR

Varsity

Although not as successful as some other Castle squads, the 1947 grapplers displayed the drive and spirit that is characteristic of all Stadium teams. The matmen took on Longview Jan. 24 for the season's opener, upsetting the Longview squad by a 25½-24½ count. The Bengals then dropped one to Lincoln by a 30-16 tally, followed by a loss to the Fife Trojans by a 29-20 score.

The Tiger matmen then traveled to Longview where they again met the Longview squad but with different results from those of the previous encounter, falling by a 35-14 count. The match there between Bigger and Peterson was one of the highlights of the season. Bigger, who has not lost a varsity match in three years, drew with Peterson on the first match with Longview. In the second meet Bigger was out for revenge and decisoned Peterson.

The Tigers met Lincoln Feb. 28 to decide who should gain possession of the coveted Cammarano trophy, with the Bengal grapplers needing a 15-point win to keep the trophy. However, they were methodically trounced by the tough Lincoln squad, receiving the short end of a 39-10 count.

The Tigers were fortunate in having one of Stadium's newer coaches, Mr. M. Carr, as mentor and Skip Norton and Herman Beyer as co-captains. Bob Monoghan and Dwight Johnson were awarded the co-inspirational award. Thirty-five letters were given out, with Fred Veatch and Bob Bourdon being elected co-captains for the coming year.

COACH STREETER

Varsity Swimming

Winning the State championship for the third consecutive year, the Tiger mermen chalked up an impressive list of victories. They skimmed through all opposition without dropping a single match. In competition with six of the best squads of the state at the University of Washington Pavilion March 2, Stadium amassed a total of 49 points to cinch the State crown. The closest contender was Everett with 37 points.

The Bengal swimmers opened the season by a 47-19 win over Lincoln, followed by a 48-18 triumph over Longview and a 46-20 victory over Aberdeen. The finmen then rolled up 59 points to top Everett and Lincoln in a tri-meet.

Everett fell to the rampant Tigers by a 36-30 tally, and Longview was snuffed out again by a 52-14 count. The Lincoln squad followed in the footsteps of their forerunners and was cut down for the second time, 36-30.

Stadium clinched the Cross-State title on March 8 by virtue of a 42-22 trouncing handed to Everett. The Tigers racked up their ninth straight win when they slammed Aberdeen with a 42-24 tally. This set the Bengals in line for a crack at their third State crown and the rest is history.

Co-captained by Ken Addis and Dave Bigger and ably coached by Mr. Streeter, this year's squad was another great representation of Stadium's clean sportsmanship and powerful drive. The team should also be praised for its many long hours of hard work resulting in a championship swimming team. Twenty-three letters were given out and Dick Lowery received the coveted inspirational award.

The reserves swam two meets, overcoming Lincoln by a 58-8 count and later by a 50-16 tally.

COACH LEVINSON

Varsity

Although the track team was only part of the way along on their schedule as The Tahoma went to press, it showed great promise to complete a victorious season. The members had as yet to lose a meet and were still going strong.

Sparked by many returning lettermen and a large turnout, the squad held an interclass meet on March 28, with the victory going to the juniors. The first regular meet of the season was a tri-meet with Clover Park and Puyallup on April 6, in which Stadium slipped through with $53\frac{3}{4}$ points to win by a small margin.

The Tigers started rolling after that and chalked up $72\frac{1}{2}$ points on April 19, downing Aberdeen and Olympia. This was followed by a win over Everett and Lincoln, with Stadium garnering 74 points. This put the Bengals in first place.

To continue in the win column, the cinderpushers journeyed to the Everett oval on May 3 and copped the Cross-State title in competition with Everett, Bellingham, Bremerton, Lincoln and Seattle Prep. The Bastille thinclads rolled up a total of $49\frac{2}{3}$ points to triumph by a large margin.

On May 5 the team jogged across town to compete in the revived Penn Relays with Lincoln and Bellarmine. To prolong the streak the tracksters won by two points over Lincoln as they rolled up $21\frac{1}{2}$ markers.

Last on the calendar of league meets was the city affair with the Lynx and Bells. Again the Bengal boys emerged victorious by a overwhelming majority as they cracked out $85\frac{1}{2}$ points and qualified 14 men for the West Central meet.

Meets remaining on the schedule were: West Central District meet at University of Washington track, May 17, and the state meet at Pullman on May 24 (first and second place winners from West Central meet).

Mr. Levinson did the mentoring job for his second year and Bob La Hatt was captain.

COACH MARV SCOTT

Varsity Baseball

Strengthened by a large number of returning lettermen, this year's baseball squad appears to be made of the same championship material as last year's. At the time that The Tahoma went to press, the team had played only four games and one intersquad meet.

The stickmen started the season off right by beating Clover Park April 11. They split a double header with Bellingham for their first game in the Cross-State league April 18. This was followed by a victory over Seattle Prep, 4-3 and 4-0. This left them tied with Bellingham for the Cross-State title.

Games remaining on the schedule were: Bellarmine, Everett, Lincoln, Bellarmine, Bremerton and Lincoln.

The Bengals were fortunate to have Marv Scott, formerly of the Tacoma Tigers, as their coach. Mr. Scott stated that he expected great things from the 1947 team.

Varsity Tennis

Headed by John DuPriest and Bill Reid, two of the finest racquet wielders in recent Stadium history, the varsity tennis squad started out the season in fine style and climaxed it by winning the Cross-State championship in May.

From a heartening turnout of 26 enthusiasts, Coach Epstein whittled his field down to the varsity team, composed of captain Bill Reid, John Du Priest, Bill Perkins, Bill Moyles, Donn Spencer, Fred Veatch, with Dud Panchot as alternate.

Varsity Golf

No quite halfway through their season when The Tahoma went to press, the Stadium golf team had taken three out of five matches on the win side of the ledger. They downed Foster 12-3; Clover Park, 10½-4½; Olympia, 14½-1½; and lost to Lincoln, 11-4, and Everett, 11-4.

Making up the varsity were Louis Youngman, Chuck House, Bud Nelsen, Terry Tate and Ed Edwards.

Matches remaining on the schedule for golfers were: Bremerton, Bellingham, Lincoln, Bellingham, Everett, Bremerton, Olympia, Clover Park, Lincoln and the Cross-State meet.

The team's home course was Fircrest, which they used Mondays and Fridays free of charge.

RIFLE TEAM

TEAM IN ACTION: Prone: Marianne Garberg and Barbara Weierman. Sitting John Hirschy and Alan Paterson. Kneeling: Dolores St. Amand and Katherine Thomson. Standing: Mr. Giltner, Dave Bigger and John Schartow.

ROW 2: Dolores St. Amand, Marianne Garberg, Margaret Ward, Anne Boyd, Don Laakso, Vernon Chapman, Ken Lundemo, Ronald Grunden, Ruth Humiston.

Rifle Team

The honors won by the rifle team are the result of long hours of hard work and practice, although this is not generally credited to them. Engaging in 12 matches, the team defeated Clover Park twice, split a pair with Lincoln and lost one to Bellarmine.

They placed in four N.R.A. postal matches and the Hearst Junior National. In the N.R.A. Sectional Match the team took fourth in match and second in scholastic. Dave Bigger captured first place in individual shooting with a score of 182.

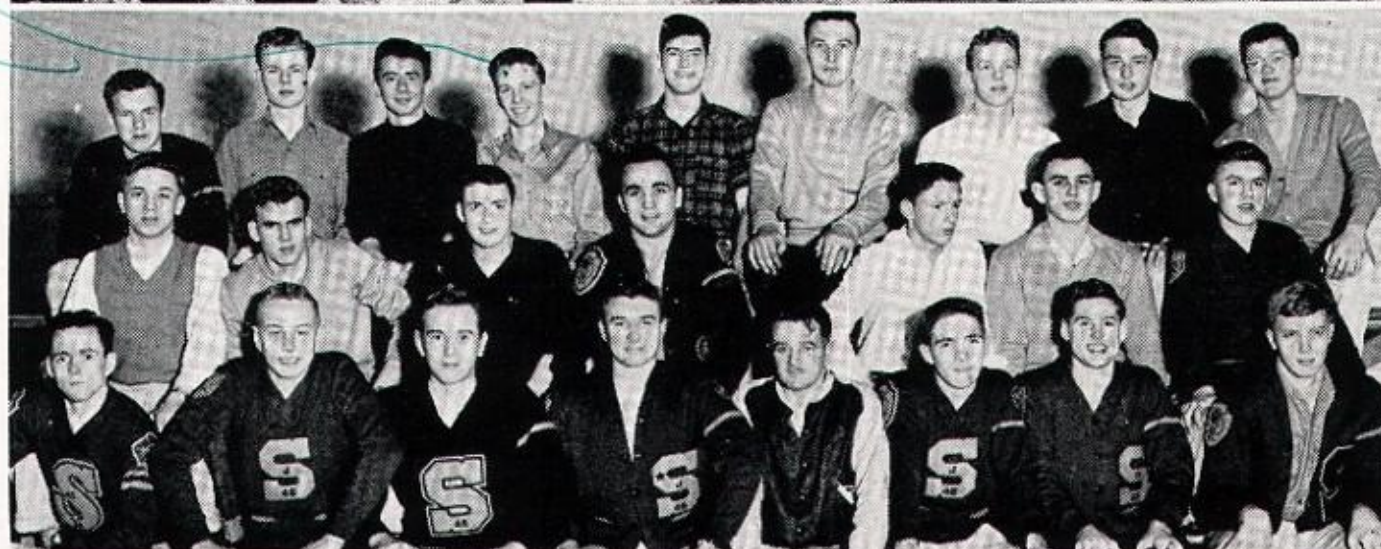

The team was captained by Dave Bigger and Mr. Giltner is the instructor.

Cross Country

With more interest being shown every year, the fourth annual Cross-Country race turned out to be a huge success under the sponsorship of Hi-Y. This year, not like others, a trophy was contributed to the school with the winners' names to be engraved each year. Ribbons were also awarded to the first four places. Bob La Hatt, who coached and directed the event, still holds the record of 7:10.4, while Ralph Long, two-year winner, has consistently been pressing himself to break it. The event was first started in 1943 when Jack Smith copped the coveted honor. The next year Bob La Hatt set the record and for the past two years Ralph Long has been the winner. With a higher honor to shoot at, the event should cause greater interest in the years to come.

Boys' Student Leaders

The student leader organization is one of the most important in Stadium. They help the coaches and teams in many ways and generally make themselves useful by doing all sorts of odd jobs around the gym. Aiding the teachers in the gym classes is another one of their varied duties. Before becoming student leaders, the boys are required to take a semester training course.

The boys' student leaders have sponsored two smokers this year. Officers were: Ben Fawcett, president; Roger Engberg, vice president; Ted Cormier, secretary, and Don Lochow, treasurer.

Girls' Student Leaders

By assisting Miss Bernard and Miss Minton, gym teachers, the student leaders gain much valuable experience in leadership. Their duties include checking attendance, taking care of equipment and instructing girls in the pool and the gym for one period each during the day.

For a year of this work a girl earns an athletic point and emblem. Girls are chosen for their athletic ability and good grades.

Officers this year were Fritzie Herrmann, president, and Corinne Sule, secretary-treasurer.

Pin Winners

The highest goal for which Dianas may strive is the gold pin, symbolizing three years of participation in girls' sports. This award is achieved by spending the required amount of time working for six points in team and hobby sports.

To qualify a girl must have earned her felt and chenille letters in her sophomore and junior years. Pins are earned through sportsmanship and willingness to spend much time and energy in acquiring necessary points.

Form-Swimming

Performing for the first time this year was the girls' form-swimming group, which practiced long hours to perfect its routines.

The Royal Tarpons provided a colorful touch to swimming meets, in their bright blue suits. As special attractions, the mermaids swam at the state meet held at the University of Washington and for the formal opening of the Madigan General Hospital pool.

The water ballet group was coached by Miss Jean Poulson and Helen Gladstone.

Swimming Team

The coveted girls' swimming championship and honor of being named "queens of the swimming pool" were earned by the seniors this year at the annual swimming meet in the Diana pool on April 29. Senior mermaids, captained by Helen Gladstone, defeated the junior and sophomore teams with a score of 34. The junior team, led by Barbara Kitlar, had a total of 32 points and the sophomores, whose captain was Dorothy Jorgenson, had 24 points.

Baseball Champs

In a hard-fought game between Jean Mitchell's senior team and Mary Ann Jensen's junior team, the senior Dianas emerged victorious by a score of 10-7 to win the '46 championship. Because the champions graduated in 1946, the junior team's picture was taken for the annual.

The manager this year was Ruby Smith, assisted by Beverly Duncan, Beverly Ketler, Ann Petrinovich and Juanita Ruck.

Hike Leaders

To earn a point in hiking toward an athletic award, a girl must go on five hikes during the year. Checking on Dianas taking these jaunts were 24 hike leaders selected by the Stadiana cabinet and Miss Bernard. Six hikes are scheduled a semester, each of which must be a distance of five miles.

SPEEDBALL CHAMPS

ROW 1: Fritzie Herrmann, Mary Ann Jensen, Helen Gladstone.
 ROW 2: Barbara Knott, Delores Westerdahl, Frances Thorness, Shirley Gunston.

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS

Joan Grafton, Katherine Falskow, Mary Ann Jensen, Pat Chapman, Frances Thorness.

Speedball Champs

With an easy score of 24-3, Mary Ann Jensen's senior speedball team downed Nancy Green's junior group to become the 1946 speedball champions.

Managing speedball, the first sport of the season, was Barbara Knott, assisted by Beverly Vaver, Joan Grafton and Joanne Ryan.

Volleyball Champs

Burying Joan Stenson's sophomore team under a pile of points, Mary Ann Jensen's senior team walked off with the volleyball championship by a score of 39-9.

Dorothy Moe managed the volleyball season this year, assisted by Mona Rae Brunelle, Shirley Carney, Lila Kennedy and Ruth Moe.

BASKETBALL CHAMPS

ROW 1: Fritzie Herrmann, Helen Gansen, Frances Thorness.
ROW 2: Millie Williams, Mary Ann Jensen, Dorothy Moe, Jean Buonomo.

OUTSTANDING BASKETBALL PLAYERS

Basketball Champs

Because of greater practice and skill, Helen Gansen's senior basketball team won over Joyce Robert's sophomore team by a score of 37-10. This was the outcome of games played by 31 teams.

Assisting Mary Ann Jensen, basketball manager, were Jean Buonomo, Avis Face, Helen Gansen and Eileen Wildes.

Outstanding Players

For having the fundamental qualities of technique, team work and speed, eight seniors, six juniors and four sophomores won the title of outstanding basketball players. A group of 42 Dianans were chosen to compete for this honor by Miss Minton and the basketball managers.

Mildred Williams was chosen for the third time. For the second year Mary Ann Jensen, Joeline Smith and Ruby Smith were selected.

Tennis

Spring days and fair weather has a way of bringing out those tennis-minded Stadianas. This spring tennis was played by the Dianas as a non-point activity, with Donalda Moncrieff as manager of the 22 girls who participated.

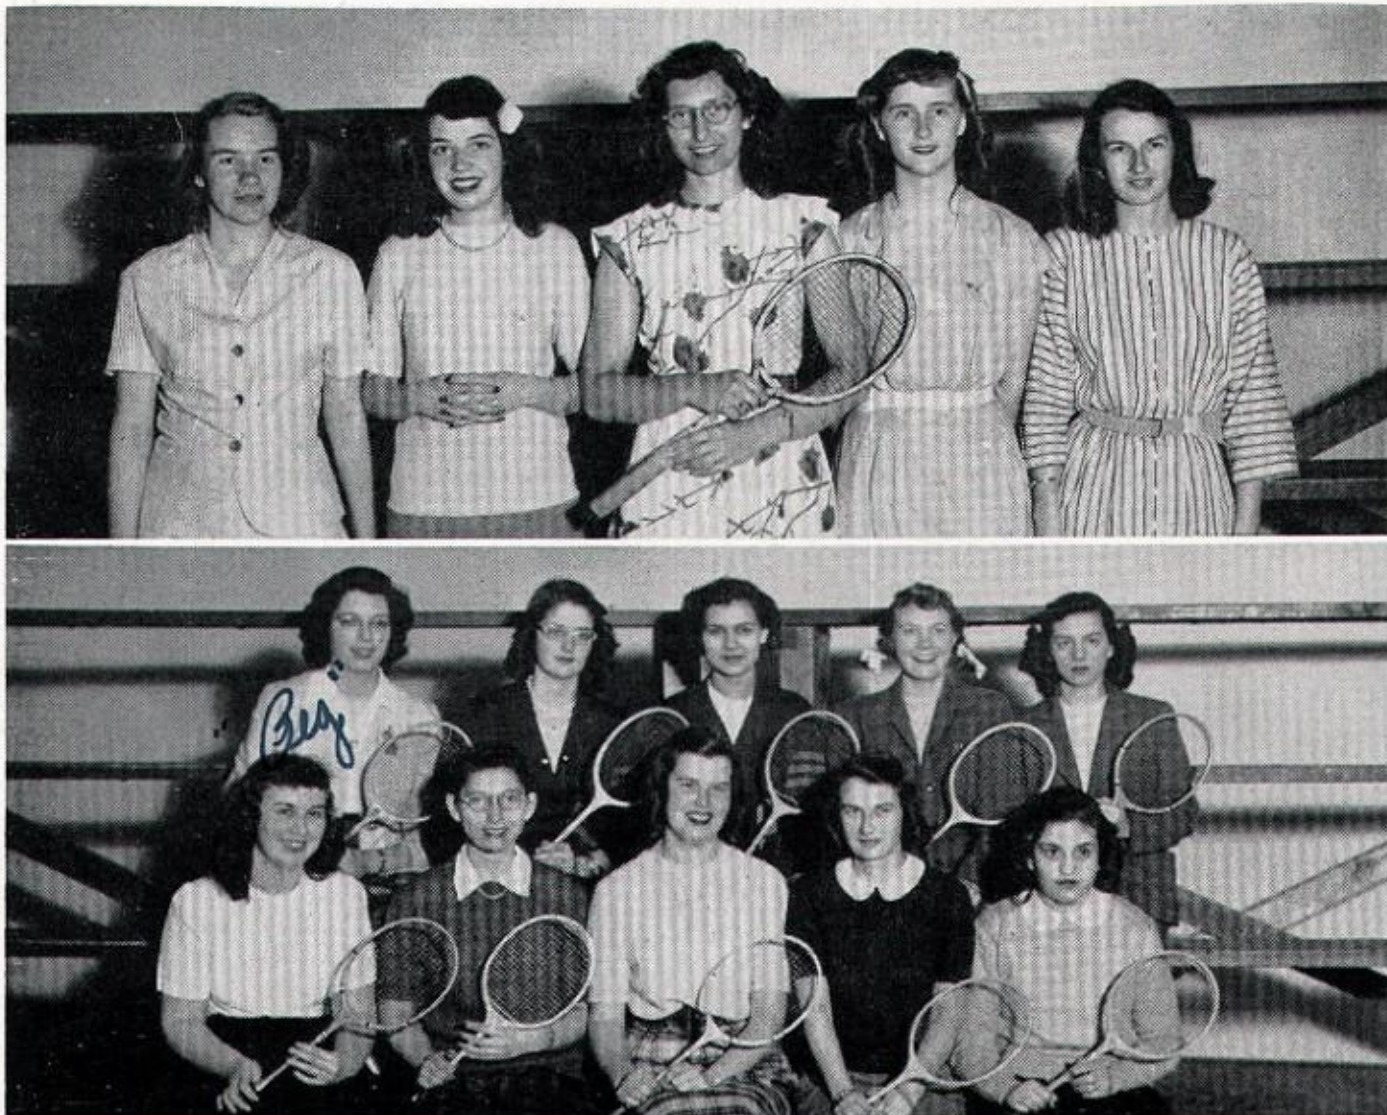

Because of circumstances, the regular tournament was cancelled and therefore no champions could be determined.

Badminton Champs

"And it's over the net." So is badminton described. Fall and spring championships went to Joan Safchik and Eugenia Minton, respectively. Joan defeated Velma Dubler by a score of 11-6, 11-9 and Eugenia defeated Joan Wilson by a score of 9-11, 11-6, 11-9.

From the 60 girls who turned out, those reaching the quarter finals received a point toward their athletic awards.

Donalda Moncrieff was manager of the sport.

Lois Bryant, Lorayne Willoughby, Millie Williams, Pat Chapman, Joan Grafton.

ROW 1: Velma Dubler, Millie Williams, Maxine Shaw, Joan Grafton, Joan Safchik.

Dear Phyllis,
 It's been really nice knowing you in Health and gym class. You are really a swell girl. Lots of luck and the best of everything always.
 Jean Easterly

Handwritten notes:
 March 1951
 I am so glad to hear of the success of the school and the progress of the students.
 I hope you will continue to be successful and happy.
 I am so proud of you.

Dearest Margaret,
Well, I don't really know what to say but I am sure you are one of the dearest loyalest friends a girl could ever have. I want to thank you for all you have done for me, the party, and reading my dumb stories. I sincerely hope that you car be together until we graduate. I hope you car in a few of my classes in the next two years. He have had a lot of good times together in last few years. He and I hope we shall have many more. I just want to wish you all the happiness in the world, as you have made so many others happy. Well good luck to a great girl.

With all my love,
Marleen

Thank you so much for the letter and the money.
I will be sure to keep it safe.
Love,
Margaret

Dear Margaret,
It has been swell
having you in my lit.
class. Lots of luck.
Barb Jones

Dear Margaret,
I don't know you very well but you sat behind me in 5th period study hall.
I guess I was always bothering you for either pencil, paper or Pen. now I shall thank you for letting me use them and wish you luck and have a good vacation.

See you next year.
Sincerely,
"Betty Lindgren"

Dear Margaret,

I haven't known you truly very long but I feel as if I have known you for ages. You're a truly swell person and I plan on knowing you better - Love
Agnes Thompson

Dear Margaret,
 You've had a swell time in here I imagine because I have. Well, good luck to a very swell girl.

Dear Margaret,
This has been a swell history class. Quite a few comical kids in there have provided a lot of laughs.
I sure wish you loads of luck in your next two years at this good old "forture chamber"
Hope you have a swell summer.

To a swell kid.
And auto.
